Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

This letter is our final response to your Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (CDC/ATSDR) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of December 20, 2020, assigned #21-00394-FOIA, for:

All records in the possession, custody or control of The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) describing the isolation of a SARS-COV-1 viruses well as any of the other common cold associated coronaviruses, directly from a sample taken from a diseased patient, where the patient sample was not first combined with any other source of genetic material (i.e. monkey kidney cells aka vero cells; lung cells from a lung cancer patient).

Please note that I am using "isolation" in the every-day sense of the word: the act of separating a thing(s) from everything else. I am not requesting records where isolation of SARS-COV-1 or any of the other common cold associated coronaviruses refers instead to:

the culturing of something, * or the performance of an amplification test (i.e. a PCR test), * or the sequencing of something.

Please also note that my request is not limited to records that were authored by the CDC or that pertain to work done by The CDC. My request includes any sort of record, for example (but not limited to any published peer-reviewed study that the CDC has downloaded or printed.

If any records match the above description of requested records and are currently available to the public elsewhere, please provide enough information about each record so that I may identify and access record with certainty (i.e. title, author(s), date, journal, where the public may access it).

A search of our records failed to reveal any documents pertaining to your request.
