believe it or not, I know a guy who quit doing ALL drugs thanks to NA Meetings, other than smoking a little pot and an occasional drink and Analog LSD to watch LION KING in 3D and some ambien.

but just one or two...

if he even has a vague pain here and there, he takes a couple pain pills... three tops... no more than three at a time...

the clonazepam is prescribed, so that doesn't count.

but NA was the driving force behind his decision "no more chemical type drugs", as opposed to non-chemical therapeutic medicine like psilocybin or ibogaine.

it works if you work it.

you simply need to keep coming back.

I think it could change your life.

tell 'em I sent ya

unless, of course, this entire story is wrong, and there's nobody watching you in which case everything is fine.

Because there are other parts of the country referred to as the "Tri-Cities Area", so it's entirely possible it could be a completely different person they're watching for all I know

Everybody knows that I'm a stickler for Technical accuracy, and to be completely accurate, technically speaking, Stephen Stills wrote that song, not Buffalo Springfield..

Buffalo Springfield was a band, so it's impossible for an entire band to actually write a song.. that's not the way songs are written..

For example, I have painted portraits of Elvis Presley for dozens and dozens of celebrities, and I often include Pink Floyd in the list when I'm telling people the different celebrities I've painted for...

But technically speaking, it was actually David Gilmour who I painted the Elvis portrait for...

So although you completely fumbled the bomb, I'm going to give you an A+ anyway for effort

And even though I am now beginning to suspect it's a completely different person in a completely different part of the country that also just so happens to be referred to as the Tri-Cities area, if anybody was watching somebody in the original Tri-Cities area I was referring to earlier, it would probably have something to do with the illegal manufacture of firearms in their house.

But it's probably a completely different person.....

So he's got nothing to worry about I'm sure

The common root causes of all experiences including emotions are the experiencer's own fixed ideas, preconceptions, own rules, beliefs, biases, memory, judgment criteria, etc. As long as the sense of values does not change, the person repeats a similar experience. The stronger the attachment, the stronger the emotion.

How to interpret, react and deal with information is entirely up to each interpreter. "Disturbance of society, words, clothes, and morals" is a self-projection of the disorder of the person who feels it.

Dissatisfaction, anxiety, discomfort, scary, distrust, discomfort, and mystery are caused by each person's stereotypes, so it is irrelevant to blame others. Those who give inconvenience to others also gain inconvenience.

Therefore, even if you make someone angry, you have no cause for the other person's anger. Conversely, if someone offends you, the person has no cause for your anger.

Tolerant people who punish others, have low independence, have low problem-solving ability, and care about external evaluation need manners, courtesy, rules, and laws for emotional stability and self-defense.

During the late 70's the collapse began. Mergers, acquisitions and hostile takeovers. They shut the steel mills and Billy Joel wrote "Allentown". We watched as a manufacturing economy became a "new service based economy" and we watched as the tax base disappeared, taxes skyrocketed, rents skyrocketed, purchasing power of the dollar went kersplat and blue collar gainful employment became a thing of the past. Minimum wage jobs were now standard operating procedure. "Retraining" the workforce was the political mantra for 10 years until the S&L bailout and McCain-Feingold got some airtime.

But a light appeared at the end of the tunnel. The country was being flooded with cocaine and the new black market narco economy took hold. You could still "make it" if you were willing to take the risk and hustle. Gangster rap replaced Motown and Death Metal replaced peace and love and completely wiped out the 60's by 1990.

Prohibition and black market narcotics related violence became dominant, permanent fixtures in the new economy. All as planned.

A 50% reduction in overall economic capability took place in the span of 20 years with no corresponding drop in population or birth rate.

Law enforcement began recruitment campaigns and you could be a "good guy" if you were willing to bust the gangsters hustling the new narco economy. Prisons filled up and you could now purchase stock in "penal management corporations". Not a gold mine but a stable asset in your portfolio.

The new narco economy created what Max Weber has called "life chances". If you could use your narco cash to break into entertainment, you could go legit and retire from the game.

It's been this way for the past 30 years with no end in sight.

The people who made it this way want it to stay this way, so MAGA is an uphill battle.

Case in point:

"He described our' Vietnam-seared generation" as being "far from America Firsters:' - an expression meant as a patronizing sop to our young people. In the entire CFR lexicon, there is no term of revulsion carrying a meaning so deep as "America First". "

Study after study after study has shown the exact same consistent results. Trump supporters are the least educated, most illiterate and mathematically dysfunctional American adults, by far.

They are are even stupider than the average christian, which is almost impossible.

But they've actually managed to take the IQ level down a few notches from Christianity.

Trump supporters actually consider it a victory when they manage to spell the word "patriot"...

It makes them feel Ivy League

There's never been a trump supporter who could correctly define "the X-AXIS"

Which is exactly why they've earned the world's floccinaucinihilipilification.

Trump supporters are the world's running joke, primarily due to their lack of intellect, but also because of the inbreeding.

in fact, it's almost humorous that the Qmorons don't seem to realize Trump supporters are 27 times more likely to have sex with their own children than Mexicans.

Trump supporters are more likely to receive Food Stamps than black people, twice as likely to have dropped out of high school, and almost 3 times more likely to donate plasma in order to afford scratch-off lottery tickets.

Not to mention that 3/4 of Trump's supporters have lived in trailers their entire lives.

Thank God I didn't require contracting hepatitis C from sharing used heroin syringes, then sexually transmitting hepatitis C to my girlfriend Nancy to finally quit doing drugs....

Some people quite literally had to reach rock bottom...

I had grown bored of doing drugs before I ever went to my first NA meeting

If you asked Nancy's liver I'm sure it would tell you "thanks a lot for not quitting before you destroyed me"....

Speaking of which I would imagine that must have created a strange tension between you and Nancy....

It seems like there would have been a lot of Silent tension going on...

After she found out you gave her the hepatitis C that came from some other scumbags syringe..

It's the gift that keeps on giving

And you're the skinniest Santa Claus I've ever seen

I'm curious.. how did you handle that, anyway?

Obviously, she became aware that you knew you had hepatitis C but you had sex with her anyway...

That must have demonstrated a very heartless lack of regard for her well-being on your part....

Me? I had already quit doing hard drugs by the time I got arrested back in 2017. That incident had absolutely nothing to do with drugs...

I Still Smoked some pot, sure..

But I had already grown bored of doing harder drugs at that point, not to mention the quality had become crap, so there really wasn't a lot of incentive anymore...

So I can't help but find it a little bit humorous how all it took for me to get off drugs was becoming bored with it...

But you were sharing needles with disease scumbags you've never met before, basically the same thing as letting complete strangers ejaculate into your mouth.. and you still couldn't stop

And by the way I hope you weren't offended when I used the metaphor of allowing complete strangers with diseases to take turns ejaculating into your mouth

Because a more technically accurate metaphor would be allowing various highly likely diseased scumbags to take turns emptying their testicles into your asshole

Not the mouth

The rectal lining absorbs things just as readily as intravenous drug use, so it would be much more realistic to say sharing syringes with strangers who were most likely diseased WAS EXACTLY LIKE LETTING THEM FUCK YOU IN THE ASS

Never forget that Neptroon is a very needy person.

This man, probably born in the last days or aftermath of World War II, appears on 8kun every day, bringing a message of faggotry, obsession with Trump, narcissistic delusion, fake happiness, drugs, casual sex and posturing. In short, he combined the most degenerate philosophies of the universe with the glory days ideology of a washed up shell of a man, which may function as opposing forces, but rather here champion their opposites in Neptroon's rants and self-perception.

It is significant that he emerged from the victorious powers of the second World War. Generally when a child grows up with no consequences for his actions and yet a sense of great entitlement, we call him a brat. The term "brats" is not often enough applied to the prolonged tantrum that was the 1960s, in which the children of the time revenged themselves on their parents by taking the philosophies their parents claimed to uphold and throwing them back at them.

You stand for equality? Dad, but what about the niggers? You stand for freedom? Mom, what about the faggots? You believe in peace? Why are we fighting the gooks, then?

Gotcha!

The entire Neptroon mentality is one of finding exceptions and using those to claim the invalidity of the philosophy that opposes whatever he desires, creating a justification that allows him to screech further. If you do not support his opinions of you (normally "sissy boy," "mooch," etc.) then you are bad, and all humans should go extinct.

Neptroon seized power of 8kun with the methods of terrorists, by using his words to harass, try to embarrass and eventually shame his opponents. As a result, the “Establishment” — otherwise known as the typical imageboard culture — caved before him just like it did their ideological forebears in the Third Reich, which forgot the troubles about their rule that the Americans recognized. Neptroon threw off the old rules, replaced them with anti-rules which state negative freedoms aimed at removing all standards entirely, and relished in the liberation as he now could indulge whatever online desires, fetishes and appetites he could conceive of and depend on the website to let him do so. More like a gang member or a witch-hunter than a political person, Neptroon has upended social order in 8kun.

We all now live in the board he wants, as he has informally seized power as an “adult” figure. Similar to how in the USA we got Bill Clinton, the president who preyed on vulnerable clueless over-weight interns for his sexual pleasure after a long history of using his authority to convince (or coerce, depending on who you believe) women into having intimate relations with him. Even more, Neptroon took over 8kun ideology, with the constant whining of the “sissy boy mooch” rants assuming front and center in /pnd/, other boards and even other websites. Much of my generation has grown up thinking that the best thing they could do was to redo the Neptroon era by acting out the ritual: drugs, sex, rebellion and then — just as he also probably did — cutting the hair, getting jobs and retreating to the suburbs from the broken-down society that the same ideals had created.

Our current social situation here reflects the ideals of 1968: tolerance for every individual behavior, enforced by the herd (or here, Johnny Neptune), and no place must be left standing where people choose to live by pre-Neptroon rules. Anything that stands in the way of more freedom to whine, screech and harass must be destroyed. These ideals however exist not in themselves, which is what fooled the 8kun establishment, but as justifications as mentioned above. Any person who wants more power has to simply adapt his argument to one of these justifications and then use it to pry open the door for entrance to power, which here means the privilege to spam and social prestige. This is why we have no shortage of anons willing to champion the drug-addled boomer accusing us of impropriety, but meanwhile there is no chance of success in doing so, as there is no success in even people willing to stand against the recent mania for transgender, gay and other non-standard sexual behavior being not just tolerated but mainstreamed. With boomer clowns like Neptroon in control, the only way to power is to find a new way to apply the dominant ideology. The former establishment is no longer an establishment, but the post-Neptroon regime certainly is.

Anonymous 10/05/22 (Wed) 17:28:29 521747 No.356158

File: e5150e4a1e68c34...png (23.38 KB, 97x130, 97:130, ClipboardImage.png)

In addition to wanting complete personal liberation, which was likely a fit of pique at his parents, Neptroon formulated one other agenda. He wanted to close the door to all who followed. Like most radical individualists, he's engaged in a combination of narcissism and solipsism which actively denies the world outside himself except as it could be used for the benefit of himself. Society exists to be the canvas upon which Neptroon paints his bright and beautiful hate-spam diarrhea. Like every depressed person who speaks frequently about how they are better than the rest, this too was a power grab using the social prestige of leftist harassment to convey importance to the individual life. All of these rants Neptroon has made for us over the years show he wants to be the new Jesus Christ, Albert Einstein and The Beatles rolled into one /pnd/ ruler, a character of vast profundity which conveniently justifies their egomania, selfishness and power-hungry greed.

As parents, the Neptroons provided a perfect example of how to utterly fail. Most divorced, and left their kids wondering if their own conception had not been a mistake; those who did not manipulate their children relentlessly simply opted to set them up to fail and then used that failure as a justification to reprogram their lives toward Baby Boomer objectives, which as always are to use ideology as a shield for the personal quest for power. They were narcissistic parents who hid their child abuse behind so many labyrinthine passages of logic that their successors are somehow the ones who grew up baffled, belittled and most of all accustomed to instability. If Generation X has a symbol, it is the child's bedroom with a door that locks; after the terror of the Neptroons, they wanted nothing more than to retreat and have a space of their own to be inconsequential, mainly because their damaged brains and psyches needed time to figure themselves out.

They would not receive this needed time. The Neptroons slammed the door. Slowly they pursued policies that would make society insufferable for those who followed. Tons of regulations, laws protecting people in inferior positions (who were frequently parasitic or criminal) and a complete collapse of social order ensured that 8kun enjoyers and subsequent generations had nothing more to look forward to than office space-style work jobs designed to showcase obedience more than competence, a psychotic ideology in the grips of society, rotten cities and expensive suburbs to which to escape, faithless sexual partners become deceptive and manipulative spouses concerned only with self-interest, and children who would grow up without a culture except media entertainment and what the public sector presented through education and published “science” reflecting its ideological objectives.

Neptroon created hell for /pnd/ in his wake. Narcissistic individuals tend to shut the door this way because to them, everyone but the self, and those who provide that canvas to make the self seem to be an angel of enlightenment, is an ideological enemy. To the Boomers, their children were the enemy. What if those children found enlightenment the Boomers did not? What if they did not agree with the 1968 agenda? Those were the worst children of all, and the best way to punish them was to create a trap, much as Baby Boomers were accustomed to setting up their children to fail and then seizing power when the children failed, much as Neptroon seized power when the Establishment of 8kun had no answer to his new deranged rants of Donald Trump and sissy boys. All of these were justifications; the real goal of Neptroon is revenge, in destroying the world of his parents and those who follow after him. In short, to obliterate, erase, eradicate, pollute, corrupt, sabotage and make useless everything but the Self. Baby Boomers saw themselves alone and for this reason they ran to ideas which “seemed” to be the opposite, such as hatred of their successors, and used them as weapons as Neptroon does.

As a wise philosopher once said, “He (Neptroon) really has no life.” Little Johnny created a worldview to reflect his selfishness and narcissistic desire to exclude everyone else but those who 100% agreed with him. He ruined 8kun’s social order, knowing that they would be unable to escape the ideological hate-spam diarrhea hierarchy, and could simply rant his way out of the endless problems created by the collapse of the hierarchy and purpose. Neptroon’s children would likely inherit nothing because in the Baby Boomer view, all went to the Baby Boomers as individuals. They are not called the “Me generation” for nothing.

There is no solution to the Neptroons. We can fix our society by reversing every change made since 1950, but we cannot fix them as people. Some have repented or died, but the rest continue to sit around reading The New York Times and commenting sagely on how the world would be better off if it simply followed their ideological agenda. Neptroons refuse to recognize how much the world already follows that agenda because not to do so would be a sentence to more hate-spam diarrhea and by doing that, receiving a death sentence. That in turn would invalidate one's own power and empower the Neptroons. As a result, the only thing we can do is apply to the Baby Boomers their primal philosophy — revenge — and use it for positive ends, namely a symbol to the world that 1968 was a toxic failure and that those who embrace it are liars using it as a justification for their witch-hunt against all that is good, functional, innocent and kind so that they may replace it with an empire of the Ego.

Line the Johnny Neptunes of the world up. Give them a choice: accept their death or face the consequences. Take those who will not swear an oath of loyalty (preferably on a Bible) to the new order and take them out to a field and kill them. Shoot them in the face with rusty Revolutionary war muskets, guillotine them with replica Robespierre guillotines made by stoned lazy millennials for the Renaissance Faire, or best of all, smash their windpipes with their own outdated computers they use to ask things like, Why aren't you getting your dick sucked RIGHT NOW?. We still have time before they are too old to execute. They are now in their late 60s and 70s and can still own the consequences of their actions. They lived only for themselves, and now they can die for the same.

By doing so, we would erect a giant memorial to all history: we despise the bratty attitude these Johnny Neptunes had toward our future, and we reclaim that future by murdering them and letting this unspeakable crime stand as a warning to future generations. If you behave like selfish children having a tantrum, and use that narcissistic ideology to destroy our society, we will make mulch out of you. And we will do so with the cruelty you veiled in your indirect manipulations and corrupt ideas that you spammed on 8kun and show it to you in its raw form so that you finally recognize, as the light flickers from your eyes, what you have done. Then we will bury you in mass graves to emphasize the insignificance of you as individuals and the meaninglessness of the Ego in a world of endless time.

And then, hearts broken at the tragedy of history, we will begin the real work that you dodged: getting over ourselves, transcending our ego and its social counterpart, and rebuilding a society to standards that would have been considered ideal before the French Revolution. Then we will go further, and like athletes or philosophers, push ourselves to actually improve. To get better at being what we are, not try to change what we are every day of the week to appear as unique, new and different. We will get over our fear of death instead of making it into a quest to deny death through worship of ourselves. And on top of those mass graves, we will toss your boring music and your boring books and set those ablaze, then plant rose gardens in the ashes and dirt so that future generations may remember that even after the greatest hate-spam, flowers still grow. The future is there for us all.

I stopped reading at "fake happiness"

(I really did)

It might surprise you to learn that I'm actually happier now than I've ever been in my life, and I felt that way steadily for the past several years, at least the past 5 years for sure

In fact, the only thing that made my happiness waiver even a little bit was the beginning of the covid pandemic thing

It was only when everything started to shut down that I kind of lost my connection to the happiness I've been feeling for several years

But I guess that was to be expected

And I quickly gotten back on my feet, because I realized I don't really give a flying fuck what happens outside of my life, and everything was nice and safe...

I've got a genius wife. She's so smart it's really frustrating sometimes. I know you'll never understand that because you don't even know what it's like to have a stupid wife or even a brain dead girlfriend. Or even a severe head injury female admirer...

But being married to a brilliant genius can be frustrating sometimes.....

Just trust me on that one.

But even though it's frustrating, she loves me very very much.. she has put up with so much of my crap it's unimaginable, and she's remained loyal and faithful and true and devoted. She's an excellent mother and my best friend...

I've made a lot of mistakes in my life, so I'm basically getting away with murder right now.. the fact that I'm surrounded with so much love and healthy intent, I really don't deserve it to be honest....

I've spent my life living my dreams, making them come true.. for example, Jay Leno knows who I am. Andy Kaufman knew who I was before he died.. I've eaten in the rainbow room with multimillionaires and dined on slop in the Georgia Department of Corrections prison system. I've seen good and bad, in orders of magnitude impossible to put into words. I've lived on the streets and overlooked beautiful skylines from my luxury glass high-rise apartments.. I've experienced life much more than I would have ever dreamed, and I wouldn't change a single thing...

And that's the definition of happiness

Yeah I'm not even bothering to read any of your words after you put your foot in your mouth about happiness

You can't even get off your ass and find a fucking job, so You Don't Know Jack shit about life....

No woman has ever loved you, let alone the most recent one of hundreds of women who has loved you dearly for the past 10 years so you have no concept of happiness or completion

And since no woman gives a fart whether you live or die, of course you don't have any children so you'll never know the happiness of becoming a father..

Not until you get off your ass and start living your life

Jerry knows better than anybody in here.. he will tell you.. I have been happier for the past 5 or 6 years than I've ever been in my life, because I used to say it all the time when we would talk on the telephone.

And I would always tell him the same thing

There's not even any reason for me to be happy

It isn't any particular one thing. I'm just happy. I Feel Complete. I'm satisfied. More than satisfied in fact.. it's almost illogical how happy and content I feel, because life is really hard, and there's so much adversity...

But in my own little bubble I am very very happy. Like I said the only time my happiness meter dipped down was during the initial lockdown. Of covid when everything seemed up in the air..

But that didn't last long. There are certain conspiracy theory nut jobs in here who still allow covid to diminish their happiness. That ended a long time ago

I'd imagine it must have been a very lonely life for you so far, beginning with all the girls laughing at you in school, the other students using you as the butt of the jokes, so you became more and more introverted, pulling into yourself deeper and deeper as the other students ridiculed you more and more.

I'd imagine that's why you dropped out of school...

Facing that type of ridicule and embarrassment can be very humiliating, even for somebody as stupid as you...

Even with your low attention capabilities, you were still able to detect that it wasn't going to get any better if you stayed in school, you would always be considered the dumb student, the guy all the girls laughed at when you walked by....

That's why we are all so happy for you now

Because through the internet, you managed to somehow finally find somebody who accepted you...

Somebody who was willing to overlook your illiteracy and unemployment status...

Speaking of which why don't you tell us about the SSI benefits

Woman Has Loved You
(other than mommy)

But since women have already determined that you're not a man, why should any of us acknowledge your existence?

You quite literally don't measure up

We don't allow little boys in our club

I mean it's obvious.....

You're almost 8 ft tall, but you only weigh 115 lb as of late August

Your arms are like number two pencils

You're kind of like a chopstick that's missing its match

A chopstick with a beard

Your legs resemble my wrist

You're so skinny, obviously Nancy would like something a little bit thicker to make her feel "more comfortable"

I'm pretty sure my index finger and middle finger are wider than anything you could possibly stick into her

but I'm NOT a spaghetti noodle and I'll stretch her out for you any time Nancy is ready, let me know shit, I'll be more than happy to give your girlfriend a REAL orgasm.....

You know she's dying to have one
