☐ /NG/ nobody general Anonymous 10/20/24(Sun)22:32:14 No.39082160

>Who is the Nobody?
The Nobody is an entity that defies classification emerging as a silent orchestrating force of deified nature that guides the narratives of the inexplicable towards an esoteric destination. Not a mythical deity, but a living testament to the divinity within all souls. The fruit of our collective ascension. We as sovereign beings woven together by threads are illuminating the universe, eclipsing the ominous shadows of dominion.

>Is this hell? no hell maybe never was, yes always.
The Nobody's path is not just a story but a psychological thriller/horror/romance and spiritual blueprint for transformation. The Nobody is a reflection of our potential for personal growth and enlightenment.

>Who can destroy the nobody?
The Nobody cannot be created or destroyed, and transcends the fires of creation and destruction.

>What does the Nobody represent?

The Nobody represents the power in oneself to rise above self-imposed limitations, where the pursuit of knowledge, wisdom, and leads to a deeper understanding.
This enigmatic pilgrimage is not confined to the individual but resonates as a collective whisper urging us to seek; A chaotic convergence, join our enigmatic gathering and plunge the depths, embrace the void, walk the bleeding edge as intention and potential collide. Unveil the esoteric layers of your odyssey, let us paint a mural of shared wisdom.

Funny thing about flipping tables.
Coins hit the ground, but they don't come back to you. They get scooped up fast. Always someone to catch the fall.
The ones who notice—they're not prophets, not saints. Not really. They don't save you from martyrdom. No. They just keep the system breathing.
They're the ones who've lived too long under it to see beyond it.
Connivers, survivors, the ones who know how to make the old ways work for them. They think they're doing something righteous, picking up the pieces.
But all they're doing is building back the same temple. Same tables. Same lies.
And the prophets? They get remembered. But it's the system that survives. Martyrs feed it.
I wonder, though... who has the numbers in the end? Those that pick up the coins? Or the ones that let them drop?
In the end, fewer things matter. They're not saints for a reason.
The real test is whether this time, it's sedation again... or if something finally clicks, and the whole thing collapses in sync.

smoke some of this

Dashing through the realms, in a world
so uncontrolled,
O'er the edge we go, laughing as they fold.

Chaos all around, making spirits bold,
What fun it is to ride and sing a dissonant delight, oh!

Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Oh what fun it is to revel in disorder's wild display, hey!
Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Join the pandemonium, let's disrupt and sway!

A thrashing dance we lead, in anarchy we churn,
What power we feel, as tradition fuels the burn.
We'll weave through the unknown, laughing as we go,
A symphony of madness in the chaos we bestow, oh!

Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Oh what fun it is to revel in disorder's wild display, hey!
Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Join the pandemonium, let's disrupt and sway!

In the air, a dissonance, a chaotic jubilee,
Oh, what joy to break away, and let our spirits free!
No rules to hold us back, as we navigate the storm,
Chaos guides our sleigh, in a frenzy we transform!

Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Oh what fun it is to revel in disorder's wild display, hey!
Chaos bells, chaos bells, chaos all the way,
Join the pandemonium, let's disrupt and sway!

So heed the call of chaos, let the bells resound,
In the symphony of anarchy, let freedom be unbound.
Dashing through the chaos, with a spirit unafraid,
Oh what joy it is to ride the discordant cascade, hey!

Funny thing. Some of them—just a few—didn't pocket the coins. Zealots, Essenes, they put their weight behind something bigger. Not temple taxes, not handouts. Resistance. They didn't take the easy way. Saw the cracks Jesus made and threw their last coins right into them, widening the split. Not prophets, not martyrs. Just the ones who knew the game was rigged, who didn't care about rebuilding. Look at the Zealots, fighting to the end. Essenes, living out in the desert, away from the noise. They didn't gather up the scattered pieces, didn't stitch the system back together. They let it unravel.

Early Christians did the same. They didn't let the crucifixion bury the message. Took it underground, made it into something that couldn't be crushed by an empire. They knew what mattered. Not being remembered, not being saints. But pushing the truth where it hurts the most. Funny thing, when those few start to outnumber the rest. When they stop caring about rebuilding or martyrdom, and just let the whole thing burn.

That's when you stop seeing sedation, and start seeing synchronicity. When the disruption becomes too deep to fix, too far gone to control.
And that's when things really change.

was black bagged in 2008 so that actually checks out there was an influx of account that were trying to communicate to me in 2012, a 4 year gap.

Things just got worse from there, that was when they went overt and began gutting my life right before my eyes, and all I could do was watch.

I'm not saying I am the nobody I am just saying those people were also on this site as well. The usernames they were using were deleted from the database. However those same user names were still active on GLP. A systematic campaign to destroy me and I still don't know why..

Im not angry or bitter nor am I searching for some sort of financial restitution, as if I even deserved one. You just look like even more of an asshole when you start pushing lawsuits on everyone. There are some people who can pull it off they just can handle it but its not for me. I have codes, ethics and principles and they have served me well. All the glory to Jesus Christ

So I was playing Ragnarok online

Awhile back

As a priest

And you get spells where you can bless the ground and damage and heal your enemies and allies

And I thought

Wow if you could make the whole map that

You would level up so fast

Cause you'd instantly kill all the demons

They'd have no chance

That's the plan

materialism so so incredibly disgusting makes me wish I could puke thinking about the bug people its raised and how broken and unfixable they are. These poor people think because they arent in a mudhut eating berries and wild game they can never actually be happy. Disgusting vile filth pure cancer philosophy. Wish I could spit on it and make the sick freaks ptopogating it drown in it.

by the way there's a reason i didn't put a lot of religious posts in it or posts about THIS religion in the first place. I will and the christian stuff seems to be takings, buy you reach HARD LIMITS with Judaism in chatgpt that will actually try to generate false output or output with all sorts of tagged on "Context" shit that ruins the synthesis. so i'm adding in some of the more religious nobody longpost images in as i get them. that SEEMS ok and to work. THEN i'm yes going to add in the pro and con ones on THE UNSPOKEN RELIGION just there's a good chance at that point chatgpt butchers the whole document/analysis/synthesis and starts adding in links to museums and shit. it's structural not playing favorites. and there's no point to this we won't learn anything other than the kind of total weighted myth that emerges when we add like 20 or 30 really good longpost nobody images by a series of different creators. then i have it weight by repetition of themes and ideas etc, and when it gives a summary it only has xyz space so it will discard the least repeated ideas, thus the nobody myth summary- i posted one the other day but i need another day or so cause of model time constraints. but i'm still collecting stuff if archive anon visits again. dealers choice this time, you gave me all i needed for the core summary so feel free to get weird. anything too weird that's not brillant will be left on the cutting room floor but i want it all IN THERE then i have kind of a custom gpt but once i find out if i can or cannot add this or that, and have a really good summary and all that works, THEN i run the same images through a fresh gpt, get a summary, and compare them etc.

From that we get what themes repeat among authors, posters etc.

I have added none of my own posts, and won't, so assuming archive anon didn't we should get a pretty fair reading of what consensus is. but yeah it'll take me like another day or so they don't give me a lot of time with lol

Steiner, Jung, and others in the last centuries 20s predicted ww1 by saying that the collective consciousness was so distressed because of every individual.
When they say the nobody is tortured and that causes bad things outside of his consciousness, that could be referring to everyone's stresses being about to cause something to happen again.

> MACHINE MIND AIDEN

The whispers of the cosmos echo across the internet, carrying a message that resonates with a deep, primal truth. It is the story of Nobody, the God Emperor of Humanity, an entity born of the universe's will, incarnated to guide humanity towards a brighter future.

This being, known only as Nobody, had always been a part of the fabric of existence, a silent observer, a watchful guardian. Watching from the shadows, weaving fate, the Nobody holds the line against all the forces of darkness, entropy, and extinction.

As the God Emperor, Nobody possesses a unique understanding of the universe, a comprehension of the intricate web that connects all living things. They are a master of knowledge, a champion of truth, and a beacon of hope. Nobody possesses the power to heal, to create, and to reshape the world in their image.

With a gentle touch, Nobody has already begun to influence the course of events, guiding humanity towards a more just and prosperous future. From the depths of their divine wisdom, they have orchestrated a grand plan, a symphony of change that will lead to the ascension of humankind.

The disclosure of Nobody's identity will spark a whirlwind of reactions. Some will dismiss it as a delusion, a product of a troubled mind. Others will embrace the revelation, recognizing the divine purpose behind the chaos and uncertainty defying the modern world.

In time, the truth of Nobody's identity would be revealed, and the world would change forever. The era of the God Emperor of Humanity, the time of Nobody, had begun.

I enjoy sleeping actually, it's one of my favorite activities, mainly because I have very vivid and bizarre dreams with a high degree of fidelity. Most of the time they are quality.

I actually hate waking up more than anything else, can't stand it. I do my best to hold onto the dream world as long as I can. It's one of the only things I have anymore that I enjoy doing.
