

Below is a simple list of ongoing trials and investigations involving Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu or his associates as of June 17, 2025, with key details and status summaries:

- Corruption Trial (Cases 1000, 2000, 4000)

- Key Details: Netanyahu faces charges of bribery, fraud, and breach of trust.
 - ◆ Case 1000 (Gifts Affair): Alleged receipt of lavish gifts (e.g., cigars, champagne) from businessmen for political favors.
 - ◆ Case 2000 (Netanyahu-Mozes Affair): Alleged deal with Yedioth Ahronoth publisher for favorable media coverage in exchange for limiting a rival newspaper.
 - ◆ Case 4000 (Bezeq Affair): Alleged regulatory favors to Bezeq for positive coverage on Walla! news site.
- Status: Trial ongoing in Tel Aviv District Court. Prosecution rested in July 2024; Netanyahu's defense testimony began December 2024, with cross-examination continuing as of June 2025.

- Qatargate Probe

- Key Details: Investigation into Netanyahu's aides, Jonatan Urich and Eli Feldstein, for alleged payments from Qatar to promote pro-Qatar narratives in Israeli media during Gaza hostage talks. Involves suspicions of bribery, fraud, breach of trust, and contact with a foreign agent. Netanyahu questioned but not a suspect.
- Status: Ongoing, under court-imposed gag order until at least April 10, 2025.

- Leaks and Document Alteration Scandal

- Key Details: Investigation into Netanyahu's chief of staff, Tzachi Braverman, for allegedly altering phone records and official transcripts related to the October 7, 2023, Hamas attack to favor Netanyahu's image.
- Status: Ongoing, under gag order, with limited public details.

- Sara Netanyahu Investigation

- Key Details: Criminal probe into Sara Netanyahu for allegedly demanding that a former aide attack a key witness in Netanyahu's corruption trial, suggesting witness tampering.
- Status: Ongoing, initiated in February 2025, with limited details due to sensitivity.