Whether I've been sober or clean. Or in good health or bad But you simply adopt the narrative of the person you once said was a horrible and selfish human being that beau wanted to divorce but could not— while I was desperately trying to become a partner and love her. Hunter, I am trying my best. I didn't know you are not allowed to see kids. It has been so complicated and chaotic that I am just trying to be there for all the kids. You and I both know that without a friendly relationship with both K and H -that it is extremely difficult. You are my brother. And my loyalty. And I told you, I am always here no matter what. You always have me. I have been getting sober and working hard on my resentments. I've been hoping and praying for the day that you and I can rebuild and live this short life to its fullest. If you don't communicate with me, I don't know. I am doing the best I know how given the circumstance. I've made plenty of mistakes- for which I am sorry- but have to move forward and forgive. Myself. Hallie has failed two drug test in the past month alone. One because she manipulated the situation and avoided a rest and 3 because she just flat out tested positive for cocaine on 8/20. She found out on 8/22 boomed a flight that day and came to me in my 13TH day of rehab in LA. The first time she even spoke to me in months. And begged me to tell dad not to make her do what she swore on Beaus grave she would do go back to. Caron and actually stay longer then 10 days the longest she's stayed anywhere. But you sit in judgment of me in agreement with her that Natalie cannot be alone with me And it boggles my mind You amaze me over and over again She did tell me this. I can understand it because I too have relapsed. I have never once said that you can't be with the kids! Ever. I would never and have never. I don't get involved with that. It's not my place. They aren't my kids. That's whT she says to everyone Well it's not true. Period. And I will make sure that stops. At least ask her to keep my name out of it. WTF are you talking about You were involved in every aspect of my kids life and you're telling me that you don't feel it's appropriate for you to say my brother can see those kids whenever he wants like I did for you while you were killing me She told my therapist that I had been sexually inappropriate with Natalie sexually inappropriate my therapist had to question her for close to 10 minutes to make certain that she did not have an obligation to report me to the police I didnt know that was even a conversation, Hunt. And yes I am involved in their lives as a supporting role. Because I always thought that was important to you and beau. Just like you would support my kids- if I ever had any. Which I can't. Hunter- I don't know these things. This all just breaks my heart. Do not repeat anything is related to Natalie you can say something to her but do you say something to Eve and Howard I promise you this will spread like wild fire and I will be completely devastated use your head when have I ever ever done you wrong I know you have never been inappropriate. I DONT know these things. I am not lecturing you! Just telling you what I am doing. You do what you want. Stop making me the enemy. Please. I won't say a word. But I will say to Hallie - I won't stand for that. No one thinks that. No one. And I will tell Hallie how I won't stand for it and she better make it right with whomever she has said that too. Don't think twice about it. I love you. I will not say anything to Howard. You have my word. I wouldn't dare even plant that in anyone's head. It's beyond absurd. Your last text to me at the beginning this month said to me that I was killing out father that's what you texted to me that I was breaking his heart and that he's not going to be with us much longer. How is that not telling me what to do And stop saying no One would believe that Hunter, because we fucking miss you. Not having you in our lives. Yes. I want you sober. No, I am not telling you what to do. Just that I am here to support you. What would you want for me? What would you tell me if roles were reversed. I am not lecturing you! I am just trying to communicate how much we miss you. how much I miss having my brother. Maybe you read it wrong. I do want you sober. But I know there is nothing I can do- other than keep myself sober, pray, and allow myself to feel the deep sadness. And hope... What do you expect me to say? It does feel lonely. Dad has changed. He doesn't have his boys. And I can't and never will fill that void for him. I will defend your honor until I die. But I won't feed you bullshit. I won't lie to you. I won't not tell you the truth. And I won't stop loving you for as long as I am alive. I know I've hurt you in the past. I am not perfect. But I hope you know that I can make amends for any pain I have caused. And own up my part. I am human. And all I can do-is keep doing the best I can. What i expect you to do is exactly what I have asked you to do over and over and over again. Don't talk to anyone about me other than to say he's great. Period the end. I expect you to defend me against any and everyone who even hints that they mAy say something negative about me even if you know I'm Wrong. And don't tell me you don't talk about me to people. I have the texts to the Olivere's to Hallie to Liz to mom to a state senator calling me because he said you went on in his office for almost an hour about how I was totally ducked up and needed help badly. You talk to sissy and Kathy about me And... So I expect you to say this. Hunter tell me what to do I have never talked to any senator about you. I don't talk to Liz or the Olivere's. Only to find Hallie when people were looking for her. I dont talk to Kathy or sissy about you. Period. State rep what's his name / pat Allen Called and texted me that And have the texts you sent to both Joan and Liz Sissy flat out tells Hallie very thing you tell her I have thiose texts to. I'll send them all to you. I stay far away from him. He was against my bill. Maybe in the past but never negative about you. I don't tell sissy anything. Haven't talk to her in month. I completely distanced myself from everyone. The Olivere's didn't think that Hallie was using and the only time I talked to the Olivere's was to do with their daughter. You can believe what you want. But I know the truth. I don't talk about you. I love you, Hunt. I miss you. Heading to bed. Not feeling well. Had surgery and now fever Neep in touch. Xo Sep 23, 2018, 8:33 PM Do you realize that when you said tell me what you expect of me and I answered you As specifically as I could "Hunter tell me what to do." You never even took a breath to ask me what it is I'd like you to do for me. You just plowed forward denying doing anything wrong and telling me what you are going to do regardless of what I hoped you would ask me to tell you. Sep 24, 2018, 5:20 AM Hunter, this is so chaotic + not normal. What would you like me to do? Sep 24, 2018, 8:09 AM Hunter, I will do whatever I can to support you. It is so hard and sad for me to see you in this state. I had seeing you always angry. At someone. I hate this disease. And how it has taken you from us. I am not preaching to you-but there is help. There is a way out of this. I know this isn't you. It's your disease. And I will do everything I can to support you. I love you. Ok Ashley you win. I'm going to disconnect a little further until everyone is less upset by me. I'm sorry for all the chaos and strife I'm causing in everyone's life. Let's not talk for awhile and maybe in 7 more months I won't be so sick and can come home without fear of ruining the kids lives. Love you so much. I love you more. I am here for you, Hunter. I will come take you anywhere and be there as you get well. All will be forgiven from everyone- we just want our Hunter back. I will do anything I can to support you and help you in getting well. You are the best man I know. Truly. And I promise with time and clarity- all can and will be figured out. This I know for sure. I love you. Know I am here if you ever want/need me. Just sending you love from beaus event tonight. Sorry you feel this way. I wish I knew what to do. I feel helpless in helping you. Just know I love you, Hunter. I told you 1,000 times Ashley. You are the most egocentric person I know save Hallie who (you were right about this) never really liked Hallie all that much to begin with. I have asked over and over just look at this chain. What I need you to do is stop telling me what I need to do and how I'm not there for everyone because you have to be joking me Ashley for 47 years I was there and I did t see you showing up for a long long time Ash but I know one day you will get it and it will stick/ but it's not the drugs ash - you are so certain that you are always right that your intentions are righteous your rages are justified and you're wrongs should always be forgiven. Well Ash whatever. I don't care anymore. The fact is you just annoy the fiick out of me. What 2/3 months out of rehab and you've strung together how many days and you're giving me advice and guilt trips and questioning the veracity if my judgment regarding Hallie. What the he'll don't you understand. I just answered my own question. What you don't understand is anything that's not what you have already previously made judgment on / which invariably casts you as either sanity or misunderstood victim. You're right I didn't show up for a long time. I am trying to make that right. As for me being egotistical and self righteous- you have the wrong woman. I have to work hard everyday to find my confidence. I am a good woman hunter. I am so sorry you don't know that. But you are not my brother. Beau would be devastated of what's come of us. I choose to remember you differently than this. Take care. I love when you tell me what my brother would feel Ashley. Jesus Christ you don't see egomaniac with the inferiority complex staring at you in the mirror. Have you ever actually listened in an AA meeting Ash. You're the quintessential text book tornado of a love able drunk that thanks they are either gods gift to whatever situation they find themselves in allowing them to give advice after two months of Sebright he to brother who's done this for 25 years that's called being egotistical your inferiority complex at Ash is evidenced in the way in which you always have to undermined me because you cannot stand the fact that you are who you are and I am who I am. This is so quintessential gas lighting ash. I'm blocking you. The notion you tell me what my brother thinks. You truly are out of your little brain. I mean it ash does anyone think you know better than me what my brother is thinking. See that's your ego ash is Because it's really so absurd that I'm laughing at it right now. Leave me alone. Yes I do know that beau would never treat me like this and would be sickened by all of this. Do what you want. Leave me alone. You're a mean man while using. Stop hurting all those you say you love. You are my sister you won't stop texting me I've asked you to stop 3 times now and you just won't. And you tell me I mean after saying to me that my brother would be devastated by my behavior. This is what I mean ash I can't even really be mad because it's so silly but sad. You're litretlaly the same 12 year old girl that went out without telling me and Kath and then stuck with a story for years that both were kidnapped by men in a white van. You have to have a sense of humor to not want to completely eviscerate with my certainty of how he feels about you.
