

THE COURSE

On a bright and sunny typically Californian day in the year of 1974, a young American revolutionary by the name of Joseph Tommasi declared the statement “The White race has lost”. The questionable and seemingly defeatist position that Mr. Tommasi and his organization, the National Socialist Liberation Front, is one of the many factors that lead lead to the black listing of him, James Mason, and many others they were formerly involved in Rockwell’s glorious American Nazi Party. After the death of Rockwell, the movement experienced its downfall due to incompetency and over saturation of intellectual mumbo jumbo as used for an excuse to be inactive and to “tone down” their message, turning the American Nazi Party (now called the National Socialist White People’s Party at this point) into a conservative movement with a Swastika.

This, in turn, created splinter groups from disenchanted or other “black listed” individuals who amounted to absolutely nothing. There’s a reason why we remember Rockwell, Tommasi, and Matt Koehl. And there's a reason why we don't remember any of the splinter groups, such as the White Workers Party and many other insignificant failures.

We remember those who stand out because of their victories and their failures. We remember the mistakes, the fallings, and the minor successes. We remember the powerful and riveting speeches by Rockwell, the sadistic lone-wolf actions carried out by Tommasi, and we especially remember Matt Koehl's inability to run an actual Party. This brings us to the present day, and the reason why I have to write this.

First and foremost. I reject and hate movement programs and manifestos, as people tend not to follow them, or follow them based on whether it is convenient at the time, and break the rules in private when no one else is around to see it. However, due to the fact that we're so few far between, and because of the internet speeding up the process of recruitment and spread of information, this I feel is necessary, despite my feelings towards it.

The fact that I have to write this is not a reflection on Atomwaffen Division itself, but a reflection on how white men have indeed lost, as Tommasi said. White men just do not share the discipline to carry out a successful movement, and this is something that just cannot be restored without a total break away from everything that conditions us to be docile consumers, and to "fight back" simply cannot happen while these conveniences exist and everyone's fridges are full. Defeatist? It's realistic. And to successfully break away from System conditioning and becoming truly free (or an "Outlaw") is the intention of Atomwaffen Division for the individuals who are involved.

Without further ado, I present the program that is not only mandatory reading for people wishing to get involved, but mandatory understanding.

THE PROGRAM

- We are not a membership organization or “movement” group.

To those still within the framework of this “movement” or “mass-strategy” program, this may be a bit hard to comprehend, however it will become clear once the dogma has been removed once and for all. Anyone on Earth can be “Atomwaffen Division”, for the premise of the group is a smokescreen operation that exists to terrorize and “troll” within the framework of the group. Anyone can purchase a uniform, patch or mask. Anyone can print their own flyers. This cannot be stopped, and there is no reason to stop it. Atomwaffen Division has no “membership list”. We are not interested in “uniting” with the movement at all either. We engage only in lone wolf/small cell/leaderless resistance activity only, no one needs to know what we’re up to or what we’re doing, since we will never reveal that. We have nothing to prove to anyone else, we will infiltrate all aspects of society. We can be your neighbor, mailman, secretary, best friend, etc. We are everywhere.

- AWD is creating the type of man capable surviving the Kali Yuga by working to bring about the Satya Yuga.

For those who know the AWD nucleus, the ones who come up with and carry AWD on, there are some perks that come with responsibility. AWD is structured in such a way to it can offer something to the novice, the accomplished, and anything in between. Ideas have to be tested in the real world in order to ascertain their truthful/usefulness. Otherwise, it's so much mental self-abuse. Our program offers not exactly a step-by-step life plan per se, but we should stick to the classical three-tiered plan of, Beginner, Intermediate, Master. An example, all Beginners must read SIEGE first. And not just read it, but understand it well enough to be able to answer random questions about its key principles in an informal Q&A session. Intermediates should then move on to the National Socialist/Fascist fundamentalists that "speak" loudest to them. Finally, after getting their minds put into order, they'll need to start expanding their consciousness/spirit. At that point they'll have to strike out alone and forge their own way.

- Our Race is our ONLY religion.

Let us not misunderstand, we are in a life or death battle with the Jew and the Jew-thinkers. This is not a matter of religion or politics, but a matter of racial survival. In regards to the question of religion, once you put on that AWD uniform or carry out activities, you cease to be yourself. When you put on the uniform, you are transformed into the AWD soldier. Religion means fuck all to the group, we're in this for life or death whether you believe in Jesus, Odin, Satan or whatever. Our goals or our purpose or being, in this mortal world, your race is in danger, and you must create a religious fanaticism out of trying to fix this issue. We're not here to spread our religion or "convert" anyone to said religion. We do not mind religious discussions, as people come to learn from one another, and debates can often times create useful ideas out of them. But we don't want people turning it into some stupid game of which god is better or whatever the fuck. We want devoted soldiers to our original European spirit and race first and foremost only.

- Charles Manson was right.

As already described, I will add AWD provides you with the knowledge and capabilities for the autonomous lifestyle. We are interested in dropping this System entirely, we do not need to be part of it or poison our own environment or living space with Jewry. What this means is; we want those who join the group to make friends and find lifelong comrades who you can band together with and leave behind the filth that surrounds all of us. This is not saying you need a cabin in the woods with no electricity per-se, but what we advocate for is becoming as self-reliant as possible. We have members with many useful handy skills that can educate you in this regard, and what we expect out of you is to have something of this nature to contribute or help with. You are a product of your environment in a lot of cases, and this is why we want to create our own environments and live within them.

- Total Environment, the Aryan way of living.

On top of the obvious things such as eating healthy and being in good shape, your own living space must reflect your inner spirit. I'll name an example: Going to a thrift store, getting older European looking furniture, wearing clothing that isn't "the norm" or "fashionable" according to the mass media, having a large library of information at your disposal and the discipline to read books cover to cover for your own wisdom and insight. This is what total environment is, you rejecting this garbage standard the System wants you to live by and being within a pleasant living space that reflects WHO YOU ARE. You will spend the majority of your time in your own house and room, so this needs to be your environment as this does have a real effect on you as a person and your mentality.

- America is a sewer, we are traitors to this country.

America enjoys policing the world, and supporting monster-states such as Israel while draining resources from third world hell holes to fuel their rotten System. Why on Earth should we be nationalists to this? This applies to our founding fathers and the constitution as well, as great as some of them might have been and despite how agreeable some of the constitution may be, we do not seek to resurrect any of it. We are about going forward and creating a new culture, new standard, new way of life that is a reflection of the old while adapting to the time in which we live. In other words, no "American Nationalists". Nor are we regular nationalists. These civilizations are dead and have been dead for years. After World War II, all that was left was a gene pool and that is the white race, this is all that's left and we must start back from year zero. This is called American Futurism, and more information about this can be found on Ironmarch.org. Nationalism is dead, plain and simple.

- We are Crazy Men of Destiny.

No goody-two-shoes. To make this point brief; we are seeking soldiers of the last battalion, and if someone is easily offended by anything then how can we rely on them in the long run? We must accept the fact that society hates us, the whole world practically wants Nazis dead and wiped off the face of the Earth. We laugh in their faces and mock them for what and who they are. We give zero fucks, basically. And don't forget to HAVE FUN! How can one live the life of our ancestors without any fun in our lives?

- We're not interested in illegal activity.

The reality of revolution is that things are totally unpredictable, and a revolutionary act doesn't always have to be to go full Dylann Roof. As recent history has shown, doing something illegal will not accomplish anything other than put you at the mercy of the cops who arrest you, and by default it will render you useless in a dungeon. We do not want that, and you most certainly do not want that. As stated throughout this program, we are doing the most revolutionary act by declaring "TO HELL WITH THIS SYSTEM" and taking those words to form. We may spend the rest of our lives helping our comrades and raising families without participating in some supposed "collapse" but that will be a life worth living in the end.

- "What have you done for the movement?"

We're not a movement group, and we're not even part of "the movement". So to answer this question, we have done literally NOTHING for those cock-suckers. That question in of itself is part of the Jewish and materialistic thinking that we must have people out in the streets exposing their weaknesses to everyone, getting their names thrown onto lists, getting doxed, and accomplishing nothing in some brawl with teenage middle/upper class antifa twits akin to some professional wrestling show-down. I will state this, if you are taking good care of yourself, holding yourself as an ambassador of your race, and eventually, if not already, having children... then you have done far more for any of these “movements”.

- “There is only the mind, the mind is everything. It is Buddha. It is Christ. It is the Devil. It is God.”

On top of being American Futurists, it comes with the territory that we all practice Universal Order. This basic philosophy means that every action that happens, everything that is invented or done all begins with the mind, and how can you hope to produce good results if your mind isn't clear? We have removed all dogmas and System-think garbage that pollutes the minds of the common American and we have reverted back to our instinctive nature. Once you have removed System-think, all you have left is the worldview, and this is what you must do. As Charles Manson said; “Read the history books backwards, all it's doing is cluttering your mind.”

- Intellectualism is cancer.

A lot of people become confused by this. We are not saying you're not allowed to be smart or anything like that. What we are rejecting is the over-use of the intellect. Anyone can over-intellectualize something to the point where it can be reasonable or correct, which is how we have crap like infinite amounts of genders or whatever. This sort of autistic behavior tends to confuse people, and is a primary weapon of the left-wing used primarily to trap people like us into their arguments and their way of thinking. Reject it.

- Atomwaffen Division vs. the Left / Right spectrum.

All notions of left and right is a divide and conquer technique that only gets people involved with stupid fights over the same ideas that are spouted out by the system. They are all meaningless to us now, we hate the right wing just as much as we hate the left wing. Essentially, it is impossible to “punch right” only because these are arbitrary terms that do not exist at all except for those who are still trapped within the framework of the System.

- How do we recruit the lemmings/normies?

We don't, in every society there will always be lemmings who are too helpless to do anything about the situation. Even if we did convince them, they would serve to be dead weight as they will not take that mighty oath declared by Adolf Hitler "I FIGHT". We don't need them, we are not interested in having dead weight within our ranks. It has always, in every revolution, been a small minority of crazy men who take back society by any means necessary, as these nobler instincts only exist within a small minority of the white race, and some have had their instincts perverted by the Jews, and we intend to find these men of good character and set them on the right path only.

- Keep your powder dry.

Don't worry, the end-game is coming. Nothing you can do will provoke it to come any faster, so I will say DON'T DO ANYTHING STUPID. Online or offline, we cannot allow ourselves to fall victim to the system or its pigs. Do not do anything that can endanger you or your group, do not say anything that you wouldn't want repeated back to you by a judge, cop, or your weeping mother. And especially don't ALLOW anyone to say anything to you that you wouldn't want to be questioned about. You may not live to see the day of final victory, but you will certainly preserve our kind and create the path that leads towards it. The future will always be unpredictable, so don't cloud up your mind with these heroic "lets gun it out with the system" thoughts because it AINT GONNA HAPPEN! We don't want to be part of this thing when it comes down, we want to keep our kind safe so we can outlast this madness. The System is in free fall, and this is a beautiful thing.

CONCLUSION

As stated in the beginning, this program was both necessary and not necessary. Necessary that people should understand these things, disturbing that so many don't. Outlined in this program, going without saying, is your rules of behavior. We do not care about "shitposting" or whatever because action does not take place within the internet in the first place, but while you are shitposting, you should be living an Aryan life and participating with your comrades. If you do not fit our standards, plain and simple we don't want you. We believe that quality is better than quantity, and we are not interested in having "formal debates" or "diversity of thought" within this organization. Any questions about this can however be asked in the vetting process.
