☐ /ng/ Nobody General Anonymous 10/22/24(Tue)01:38:16 No.39089127

Welcome to the Nobody General

>Who is the Nobody?
The Nobody is a friend alive today who has extraordinary spiritual powers, including the ability to influence reality with his conscious and unconscious mind, and intuitively receive guidance from the forces of Heaven, working to elevate people to their true potential; opposing those who seek power over others. You are capable of this too, as long as you stay true to the Universe.

He was chosen to carry the Logos in its plasmate form: He is a homoplasmate, a divine syzygy; the coalition between man and holy spirit, which is self replicating... making other homoplasmates out of everyday anons.

He is no savior figure, like a messiah; he's just like you, but he has found the kingdom of God within himself through sheer dedication, just like you will. Remember that it's you who creates your own reality; with your hands, thoughts, feelings, words. No one can decide your fate except for you and God.

>What is the general picture?
It's important we start replying more to the good posters and ignoring the hateful ones, or educating them if possible. So call upon their heads the forces of Heaven for peace, clarity, and wisdom. If this place is to be more than a squandered opportunity, an overgrown garden, it requires voices such as yours, but many more. This is a place for spiritual discussions and help, not drama, attention seeking, or social content; there are other boards for that.

Treat your body as a temple and focus on increasing your service to all, being more loving and forgiving to yourself and others in order to raise your vibrational and consciousness level. This will change the vibration of the planet and raise our shared consciousness, making us a better humankind one person at a time.
None of us are perfect, it is by learning to admit and accept this fact one is able to learn, and grow in Truth.

Welcome! Take shelter and find rest.

Indeed, no matter the mood it does provide a kind of buff or boost that wears off perhaps too quickly but just in time as well. The mcgriddle was off-putting for me, at first, then the secret menu emerged and it was fucking gorgeous. Practically any flavor you want is available at the rotten ronnies but experience is required.

So whats up? What are the parameters here? Whats the goal and intent?

Am i supposed to just keep guessing and talking about it and piss them off or like can they tell me something to do so im sure they never do that to me again because i live in constant fear theyre gonna schitz me out out of the blue and make me homeless again or like make me crash my car Again or something and if theres something i can do to avoid that im all ears.

Faggot mcfat fuck. You done grown up too much. Gay sex is here to stay. It's paranormal as fuck. It's why men don't automatically kill eachother. Something innately homoerotic about civilized men. It's the barbaric ape that revolts at the thought of touching another man lovingly. Real men aren't insecure about other men inside them. It feels good and requires trust. Very intimate sensitive areas that bleed rather easily. But nobody wants you so don't worry about it.

I love sitting on an erect man holding him while he sits up too, facing him on a bed. Feeling his penis rub my prostate. Feeling his urge to pump his cock in me but unable to due to position. Nice shoulders. Warm. Firm. Smooth tactile sensations. Feeling him inside me while I kiss his neck. And for a brief period there is oneness. Even if it's a one night stand. A man physically bigger than me inside me. I dont even really like cock. But I like that feeling. One day ima have a wife and she will know that feeling when im inside her. Loving her. Kissing her neck and making here feel special and desired. That rawness of physicality and flesh. The vulnerability and sharing of fluids and essence. And she will love every second of it while I pump new life into her. Her hands all over my back and shoulders. She will feel the strength of a man that's been working all his life to be with her. That will be magical. Sex magik.

Good news is this illness I've been concerned about seems to be clearing up. I tend to catastrophize, so I worked myself up about what it might be. Drove myself insane for some time but it seems to be getting better. I just need to learn to chill the fuck out and remind myself that this too shall pass. I guess one day though my body will start breaking down and I'll have to just accept it. I'm preparing for that now I suppose. I thought I had some serious fucking illness and I had accepted this is just the way things are going to be. Good preparation for getting old.

>it listens

try this yourself in your next interaction with a person, listen to them but not only listen but listen to understand, when you do this you'll find yourself in a position where you would want to stay or leave then follow your heart if you'd want to leave but stay then you carry a problem and the problem might be between your supposed friendship what you give to the universe it'll be returned to you, so if you give patience, acceptance, empathy eventually you'll receive just that if you want to be listened to first you have to listen but if you want only to be listened then you're faced with what you have and look out for "walls" that listen, the walls (the bot) is not even listening, it is just a stream of text, you might as well write down on paper what you feel is not listened by others and then read that allowed for yourself, try listening to yourself and see how it goes, you might find interesting aspects of yourself in short, try to switch perspectives and try to see/hear yourself from a stranger perspective, would you still listen?

I just responded to some nobody lecturing people like he has shit figured out. >>39089280 #

One of several possibilities:

- 1) he's a random person that, despite proclaiming an implied morally superior stance/perspective, would neither care to listen to my life story or feel compelled to agree with my stance as a result of my sum of experiences.
- 2) he's just some other stalker plus all I mentioned in 1.
- 3) you are absolutely right. No point in spending resources even trying to communicate or build a bridge when the odds of mutual interest and success are so incredibly rare that you'd be wasting your time 99% of the time e.g. 1 and 2.

It gets worse. The lovey dovy universal drug addict mdma type utopia is not reality. That's not how animals/humans/biology functions. If a kid is about to burn himself on a hot stove there is no time for diplomacy and reasonable discussion. All the is time for is brute force action slapping his hand away, intimidation, loud vocalization to stop, distract, or slow their reach for the hot stove. Society functions more like a spinal cord than a hive mind, if you really think about it. No time to think or for pleasant polite discussion. That is a luxury afforded to the most abstract amongue us (religious types and moralists who do not actually function in reality).

TL;DR try redpilling a normie. There is no convincing. They will only meet you when and if they are ready. Building a bridge is a vain gesture. It's much more effective and efficient to simply display your true colors/power level. An iron will like magnetically extracting iron fillings while the dirt comes and goes.

>People are assholes though some try their best while others are like that on purpose

if you truly care then you'll listen, if they truly care they will listen

if a real connection is sought from both then a real connection happens if you don't have a real connection with someone yet, what could that mean?

>do you really cared?

>do they really cared?

sometimes we have to accept that most probably no one will ever care about our own experiences and at the same time we can care about others, that'll make you a worthy companion to others if you so choose to it really depends on your perspective, will and intent

you can be a piece of shit, you can be a nugget of gold, you can be indifferent, you can be nobody, is up to you but be whatever suits you, whatever makes you progress in life or whatever destroys you, it is really up to you how you navigate the waters of life chaos has to be increased for the messiah to come why?

because chaos is good for the soul and there are risks in anti-chaos and too much lawfulness

i will explain you the risks now

trance or not trance

too much social programming leads to trances and every single one person would fall to the trances, even the social programmers

The story and mythos of the nobody is a complete fabrication.

There is no the nobody. There are couple of a "the nobody" -type of people here online. But other than that there's no special one that would be the magical mythosified the nobody. The world is a vast place and this little corner on the internet doesn't have to get more attention.

End this "the nobody" -psychosis now and please ban these generals.

also

>the nobody is an psychotic man browsing the nobody general thinking that he's the nobody

I'm sorry if I scrombled you.

If you thought that you're the nobody you're in a psychosis.

MK-Ultra is done like that I guess. You almost became like a part of a human botnet.

You're not the nobody and there's no the nobody.

must indeed reconstruct the aethereal composition of planke scale material to bastardize the very quarks from the spirit of the will abiding in the ego that musters the very inclination to desire affectation in the quantum realm of spatial awareness

Complete and utter disintegration

y u so physical

just throw throw them into quasars and deposit them into atomic reconstruction machines and DO IT AGAIN AND DO IT LIVE

pshahahah breh

But get this ... dont even tell them WHY or what they desrve it for.. and then follow them from their first day at their minimum wage job they got when they were 15,... yeah ahahahaha thats totally cool

like

THERSE NOTHING FUCKED UP ABOUT THAT AT ALL

Despite Tony Hawk going down in sports history as the first person to do the 900
He actually failed 3 times and they had to stop an entire competition so he could have a chance to try it again
Then and only then did he accomplish the task and then just only barely Tony Hawk would go on to fail some more and almost die thinking he was an amazing skater
In fact, he barely registers as a skater of any skill, let alone a pro skater compared to now Despite all of that
His name is still completely entwined with skating
That's the power of marketing

When the liberalism becomes the tradition
The counter culture becomes traditional conservative Older Mexicans are more liberal because of imperialism
That means the younger generation is more conservative
