

The book cover features a collage of primitive items. At the top, green leaves are visible against a dark background. Below them, a red banner contains the title in white, serif, all-caps font. The main part of the cover is a detailed illustration of various primitive tools and objects: a large wooden staff with a spearhead, a woven basket, a large wooden bowl, a long wooden knife, and several stone and bone tools. The bottom of the cover has a dark background with more tools, including a spear and a knife.
