RE: State of Play Day 1

After being thoroughly decimated by President Trump three weeks ago at the debate in Atlanta, Joe Biden was fired. He was fired by Donald Trump. He has now been turned out to pasture, yet the Biden record of Weakness and Failure still stands.

Just as Donald Trump fired Joe Biden, he will demonstrate to the world he can fire Dangerously liberal Kamala as well.

It's a once-in-a lifetime opportunity to defeat not just one Democrat nominee for president, but two — in the same year!

And where does the race stand? In every public poll conducted, battleground and national, Donald Trump leads Kamala Harris by the same — if not more, than Joe Biden.

The latest HarrisX/Forbes poll shows President Trump with a 9 point lead over Kamala.

Democrat polling released just today, has President Trump over 50 and leading by 6 in Pennsylvania, over 50 and leading by 8 in Arizona, up 2 in Michigan and up 1 in Wisconsin.

Lets also not forget, the Biden campaign has spent in excess of $150 million, money they can't get back.

Same year — same people — same record of failure — same result.

The same people who had the following plans:

- Weaponize the Judicial System to falsely accuse, indict and convict on bogus charges
- Utilize the United States Justice Department as a political tool to indict the former President on 40 manufactured charges relating to the Presidential records — a case that has since been thrown out of court
- Utilize the FBI to stage a raid on the President's home

- Use the Courts as a vehicle to go after the President's lifetime of assets
- State Courts led by Democrats in Washington put together attempts to deny ballot access in key states — an attempt defeated and ultimately thrown out by the United States Supreme Court

And if that wasn't bad enough, President Trump survived an assassination attempt.

The liberal elite and deep state — sensing the American public's disgust with their lawfare, and now in a desperate Hail Mary — have swapped out an incumbent President for the incumbent Vice President in a ploy to try and shake up the race.

The problem for the left and media elite? Kamala Harris is as bad, if not worse, than Joe Biden.

Border Czar Kamala Harris owns the border invasion, which has resulted in nearly 100 terrorists roaming the United States, hundreds of thousands of Americans dead due to Fentanyl, a child trafficking epidemic resulting in killings and kidnappings, a spread of a new type of crime, a crime directly linked to Harris' own beliefs, and backed by her actions, released migrants who prey and kill innocent Americans.

How do you deal with such heinous beliefs?

Aggressively, in detail, and without quarter.

The left and deep state have pulled out all the stops in their maniacal attempts to retain power.

This is a fight for American Independence:

- Independence from the oppressive weight of the Harris inflation tax
- Independence from the War against American Energy and edicts for all electric cars
- Independence that will once again make the United States respected on a world stage
- Independence from an oppressive government hellbent on taking away parental rights
- Independence from a border invasion that risks Social Security, public safety and the rule of law

The restorations of American Independence...starts today.

This "War on Democracy" — will be stopped by the man who took a bullet for Democracy.
