

5ch.net and bbpink.com were suspended by Epik Conversations.

Their terms of service are not the same as the ones I used when I registered with the previous company that owns them. They have already put up a press release about this. Proudly displaying the ripped up 1A in their minds.

It is obvious that they do not intend to give the names back. I am old now, and on a fixed income. I have paid the fight at ICANN before. The lawyer fees were just less than 1 million dollars.

I can't afford to fight them, and they did not even give a warning, just an immediate suspension.

A phishing site was made the day before this, duplicating my websites entirely. Would you please help me?

Hello James,

Thank you for your response.

We understand your reference to the Executive Order and the broader discussion surrounding free speech and government censorship. However, Epik is a private company and not a government entity. The Executive Order you referenced addresses actions taken by the Federal Government and does not restrict the ability of private companies to enforce their own Terms of Service or acceptable use policies.

The issue in this case is not lawful speech or disagreement over moderation of controversial opinions. The material identified on domains within your account involved illegal content depicting animal cruelty, which is prohibited under U.S. law and explicitly forbidden under Epik's Terms of Service. Content that violates criminal law is not protected speech.

While we recognize that your platforms contain large volumes of user-generated content, the number of users or posts on a platform does not change the responsibility of the domain operator. Operators of user-generated platforms are expected to implement and enforce reasonable moderation practices, particularly when illegal content is reported or discovered. The presence of such material on domains under your control constitutes a violation of the policies agreed to when registering and maintaining services with Epik.

For these reasons, the actions outlined in our previous notice remain in effect.

As previously stated, you may transfer any remaining domains from your account prior to 0500 PST on Monday, March 9, 2026 using the authorization code provided in the prior notice.

If you have procedural questions regarding domain transfers, please let us know.

Regards,

Hello,

Thank you for your inquiry regarding your domains with Epik.

We can confirm that the following domains remain eligible for transfer and are currently unlocked:

8kun.net
2ch.net
8ch.net

As outlined in our previous correspondence, bbpink.com and 5ch.net have been permanently suspended due to the severity and nature of the content violations identified on these domains.

These domains are ineligible for transfer and will remain suspended.

We encourage you to initiate transfers of the eligible domains using the authentication code provided in our previous notice.

Please note that your account access will be blocked as of 0500 PST on Monday, March 9, 2026. Any remaining domains not transferred by that deadline will be suspended until transfer or expiration.

Dear Sirs,

I have tried to transfer my domains. You have them locked. By the way these are text only websites. 5ch.net is one of the largest websites in the world. Millions of posts every day. I will transfer my domains, but you have to unlock them since you turned off my access. My account is MrAnderson

Sincerely yours

James Watkins

Subject: Notice of domains suspension and account termination - Action Required

Hello,

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Service and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on domains registered with us.

We received a formal complaint regarding bbbspink.com for hosting animal cruelty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net.

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video links and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of the content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.

Effective immediately:
bbbspink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.
5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.
Your account has been banned from Epik.
Epik unequivocally condemns animal cruelty in any form and has zero tolerance for this content.

While we recognize that as a domain owner you may not directly author content posted on user-generated platforms, however, you bear full responsibility for content moderation. When notified of illegal content appearing on domains under your control, you have a legal obligation to disrupt, remove, and report it to appropriate authorities. This standard moderation responsibility appears to not have been met.

All remaining domains in your account may be transferred out by 0500 PST Monday, March 9, 2026 using the following auth code:6br549 You must initiate transfers immediately, as your account access will be blocked.

Any domain remaining with us by that date will be suspended until such time as it is transferred or expires.

Epik reserves the right to report this matter to appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities as warranted by the severity and nature of the violations.

If you have questions regarding this action, you may contact abuse@epik.com

Hello James,=20

We understand your statement that the specific material referenced may have been hosted on a third-party site and not directly on infrastructure you c= ontrol.=20

However, the issue identified in our investigation concerns the presence of links and references to illegal animal cruelty content appearing on domains within your account.=20

Even where content itself is hosted externally, facilitating access to or distribution of illegal material through domains under your control constitutes a violation of Epik's Terms of Service and acceptable use policies.=20

Our policies apply to the operation of the domain and the content made accessible through it, regardless of whether the underlying media files are hosted directly on your servers or on third-party platforms.=20

As outlined in our previous correspondence, the violations identified are of a nature that required immediate enforcement action under our policies. For that reason, the suspension of bbspink.com and 5ch.net remains in effect and these domains are not eligible for transfer.=20

The unlawful speech is on someone else's domain. That is a discussion post you sent me, but it is not illegal. That buzzheavier is hosting your illegal content. I don't know them and am not part of their organization.=20

Hello James,

Thank you for your response.

We understand your reference to the Executive Order and the broader discuss= ion surrounding free speech and government censorship. However, Epik is a private company and not a government entity. The Executive Order you referenced addresses actions taken by the Federal Government and does not restrict the ability of private companies to enforce their own Terms of Service or acceptable use policies.

The issue in this case is not lawful speech or disagreement over moderation of controversial opinions. The material identified on domains within your account involved illegal content depicting animal cruelty, which is prohibited under U.S. law and explicitly forbidden under Epik's Terms of Service. Content that violates criminal law is not protected speech.

While we recognize that your platforms contain large volumes of user-generated content, the number of users or posts on a platform does not change the responsibility of the domain operator. Operators of user-generated platforms are expected to implement and enforce reasonable moderation practices, particularly when illegal content is reported or discovered. The presence of such material on domains under your control constitutes a violation of the policies agreed to when registering and maintaining services with Epik.

For these reasons, the actions outlined in our previous notice remain in effect.

As previously stated, you may transfer any remaining domains from your account prior to 0500 PST on Monday, March 9, 2026 using the authorization code provided in the prior notice.

If you have procedural questions regarding domain transfers, please let us know.

Regards,

Abuse Team

Dear Sirs,

I have tried to transfer my domains. You have them locked. By the way these are text only websites. 5ch.net is one of the largest websites in the world.

Millions of posts every day.

I will transfer my domains, but you have to unlock them since you turned off my access. My account is MrAnderson

Sincerely yours

Hello,

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Service and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on domains registered with us.=20

We received a formal complaint regarding bbspink.com for hosting animal cruelty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net .=20

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video links and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of the content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.=20

Effective immediately:=20

- * bbspink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.=20

- * 5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.=20

- * Your account has been banned from Epik.=20

Epik unequivocally condemns animal cruelty in any form and has zero tolerance for this content.=20

While we recognize that as a domain owner you may not directly author content posted on user-generated platforms, however, you bear full responsibility for content moderation. When notified of illegal content appearing on domains under your control, you have a legal obligation to disrupt, remove, and report it to appropriate authorities. This standard moderation responsibility appears to not have been met.=20

All remaining domains in your account may be transferred out by 0500 PST Monday, March 9 , 2026 using the following auth code:6nY~7cQ$2gN%4nT{. You must initiate transfers immediately, as your account access will be blocked.=20

Any domain remaining with us by that date will be suspended until such time as it is transferred or expires.

Epik reserves the right to report this matter to appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities as warranted by the severity and nature of the violations.

If you have questions regarding this action, you may contact abuse@epik.com

Hello James,

We understand your statement that the specific material referenced may have been hosted on a third-party site and not directly on infrastructure you control.

However, the issue identified in our investigation concerns the presence of links and references to illegal animal cruelty content appearing on domains within your account.

Even where content itself is hosted externally, facilitating access to or distribution of illegal material through domains under your control constitutes a violation of Epik's Terms of Service and acceptable use policies.

Our policies apply to the operation of the domain and the content made accessible through it, regardless of whether the underlying media files are hosted directly on your servers or on third-party platforms.

As outlined in our previous correspondence, the violations identified are of a nature that required immediate enforcement action under our policies. For that reason, the suspension of bbispink.com and 5ch.net remains in effect and these domains are not eligible for transfer.

Regards,

Abuse Team

Hello James,=20

Thank you for your response.=20

We understand your reference to the Executive Order and the broader discussion surrounding free speech and government censorship. However, Epik is a private company and not a government entity. The Executive Order you referenced addresses actions taken by the Federal Government and does not restrict the ability of private companies to enforce their own Terms of Service or acceptable use policies.=20

The issue in this case is not lawful speech or disagreement over moderation of controversial opinions. The material identified on domains within your account involved illegal content depicting animal cruelty, which is prohibited under U.S. law and explicitly forbidden under Epik's Terms of Service. Content that violates criminal law is not protected speech.=20

While we recognize that your platforms contain large volumes of user-generated content, the number of users or posts on a platform does not change the responsibility of the domain operator. Operators of user-generated platforms are expected to implement and enforce reasonable moderation practices, particularly when illegal content is reported or discovered. The presence of such material on domains under your control constitutes a violation of the policies agreed to when registering and maintaining services with Epik.=20

For these reasons, the actions outlined in our previous notice remain in effect.=20

As previously stated, you may transfer any remaining domains from your account prior to 0500 PST on Monday, March 9 , 2026 using the authorization code provided in the prior notice.=20

If you have procedural questions regarding domain transfers, please let us know.=20

Hello,=20

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Servi= ce and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on d= omains registered with us.=20

We received a formal complaint regarding bbspink.com for hosting animal cru= elty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal= and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account= revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net .=20

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video l= inks and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of t= he content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.=20

Effective immediately:=20

- * bbspink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for tran= sfer.=20

- * 5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer=
.=20

- * Your account has been banned from Epik.=20

Epik unequivocally condemns animal cruelty in any form and has zero toleran= ce for this content.=20

While we recognize that as a domain owner you may not directly author conte= nt posted on user-generated platforms, however, you bear full responsibilit= y for content moderation. When notified of illegal content appearing on dom= ains under your control, you have a legal obligation to disrupt, remove, an= d report it to appropriate authorities. This standard moderation responsibi= lity appears to not have been met.=20

All remaining domains in your account may be transferred out by 0500 PST Monday, March 9, 2026 using the following auth code: 6nY~7cQ$2gN%4nT{. You must initiate transfers immediately, as your account access will be blocked.

Any domain remaining with us by that date will be suspended until such time as it is transferred or expires.

Epik reserves the right to report this matter to appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities as warranted by the severity and nature of the violations.

Subject: Notice of domains suspension and account termination - Action Required

Hello,

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Service and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on domains registered with us.

We received a formal complaint regarding bbpink.com for hosting animal cruelty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net.

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video links and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of the content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.

Effective immediately:

- bbpink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.
- 5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.
- Your account has been banned from Epik.

Hello James,=20

We understand your statement that the specific material referenced may have= been hosted on a third-party site and not directly on infrastructure you c= ontrol.=20

However, the issue identified in our investigation concerns the presence of= links and references to illegal animal cruelty content appearing on domain= s within your account.=20

Even where content itself is hosted externally, facilitating access to or d= istribution of illegal material through domains under your control constitu= tes a violation of Epik=E2=80=99s Terms of Service and acceptable use polic= ies.=20

Our policies apply to the operation of the domain and the content made acce= ssible through it, regardless of whether the underlying media files are hos= ted directly on your servers or on third-party platforms.=20

As outlined in our previous correspondence, the violations identified are o= f a nature that required immediate enforcement action under our policies. F= or that reason, the suspension of bbispink.com and 5ch.net remains in effect= and these domains are not eligible for transfer.=20

Hello James,=20

Thank you for your response.=20

We understand your reference to the Executive Order and the broader discuss= ion surrounding free speech and government censorship. However, Epik is a p= ivate company and not a government entity. The Executive Order you referen= ced addresses actions taken by the Federal Government and does not restrict= the ability of private companies to enforce their own Terms of Service or = acceptable use policies.=20

The issue in this case is not lawful speech or disagreement over moderation= of controversial opinions. The material identified on domains within your = account involved illegal content depicting animal cruelty, which is prohibi= ted under U.S. law and explicitly forbidden under Epik=E2=80=99s Terms of S= ervice. Content that violates criminal law is not protected speech.=20

While we recognize that your platforms contain large volumes of user-genera= ted content, the number of users or posts on a platform does not change the= responsibility of the domain operator. Operators of user-generated platfor= ms are expected to implement and enforce reasonable moderation practices, p= articularly when illegal content is reported or discovered. The presence of= such material on domains under your control constitutes a violation of the= policies agreed to when registering and maintaining services with Epik.=20

For these reasons, the actions outlined in our previous notice remain in ef= fect.=20

As previously stated, you may transfer any remaining domains from your acco= unt prior to 0500 PST on Monday, March 9 , 2026 using the authorization cod= e provided in the prior notice.=20

If you have procedural questions regarding domain transfers, please let us = know.=20

Hello,=20

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Servi= ce and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on d= omains registered with us.=20

We received a formal complaint regarding bbspink.com for hosting animal cru= elty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal= and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account= revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net .=20

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video l= inks and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of t= he content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.=20

Effective immediately:=20

- * bbspink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for tran= sfer.=20
- * 5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer=
.=20
- * Your account has been banned from Epik.=20

Epik unequivocally condemns animal cruelty in any form and has zero toleran= ce for this content.=20

While we recognize that as a domain owner you may not directly author conte= nt posted on user-generated platforms, however, you bear full responsibilit= y for content moderation. When notified of illegal content appearing on domains under your control, you have a legal obligation to disrupt, remove, and report it to appropriate authorities. This standard moderation responsibility appears to not have been met.

All remaining domains in your account may be transferred out by 0500 PST Monday, March 9, 2026 using the following auth code: 6nY~7cQ$2gN%4nT. You must initiate transfers immediately, as your account access will be blocked.

Any domain remaining with us by that date will be suspended until such time as it is transferred or expires.

Epik reserves the right to report this matter to appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities as warranted by the severity and nature of the violations.

If you have questions regarding this action, you may contact abuse@epik.com.

You sound like Hal from 2001. I'm sorry, Dave, I can't do that.

These are not porno sites. The general public uses them, and we have millions of visitors a day.

I would appreciate some help with this. I saw what your CEO was talking about, but CEO doesn't know what was going on.

Dear Andrew,

Abuse refuses to help. This is a no warning takedown of user generated content that I don't have control of until it is reported through listed deletion system.

It is starting to look like theft.

Regards,

Jim

Subject: 5ch.net

Dear Support,

Would you tell me how to get my domain names back?

One poster posted the same thing on both of those sites.

5ch.net and bbspink.com

Neither of them have anything to do with animal cruelty. The person or persons that did this. Made a complete copy of my websites the day before they went live, 5ch.one is not me, it is a copy. Basically phishing.

I know what your CEO said. We have a deletion request system and paid human deleters that are Japanese.

Here is what the Japanese are telling me. Millions of people use this website.

Please do something about it quickly, Jim

Hello James,=20

We understand your statement that the specific material referenced may have been hosted on a third-party site and not directly on infrastructure you control.=20

However, the issue identified in our investigation concerns the presence of links and references to illegal animal cruelty content appearing on domains within your account.=20

Even where content itself is hosted externally, facilitating access to or distribution of illegal material through domains under your control constitutes a violation of Epik's Terms of Service and acceptable use policies.=20

Our policies apply to the operation of the domain and the content made accessible through it, regardless of whether the underlying media files are hosted directly on your servers or on third-party platforms.=20

As outlined in our previous correspondence, the violations identified are of a nature that required immediate enforcement action under our policies. For that reason, the suspension of bbispink.com and 5ch.net remains in effect and these domains are not eligible for transfer.=20

The unlawful speech is on someone else's domain. That is a discussion you sent me, but it is not illegal. That buzzy heavier is hosting your illegal content. I don't know them and am not part of their organization.

Hello James,

Thank you for your response.

We understand your reference to the Executive Order and the broader discussion surrounding free speech and government censorship. However, Epik is a private company and not a government entity. The Executive Order you referenced addresses actions taken by the Federal Government and does not restrict the ability of private companies to enforce their own Terms of Service or acceptable use policies.

The issue in this case is not lawful speech or disagreement over moderation of controversial opinions. The material identified on domains within your account involved illegal content depicting animal cruelty, which is prohibited under U.S. law and explicitly forbidden under Epik's Terms of Service. Content that violates criminal law is not protected speech.

While we recognize that your platforms contain large volumes of user-generated content, the number of users or posts on a platform does not change the responsibility of the domain operator. Operators of user-generated platforms are expected to implement and enforce reasonable moderation practices, particularly when illegal content is reported or discovered. The presence of such material on domains under your control constitutes a violation of the policies agreed to when registering and maintaining services with Epik.

For these reasons, the actions outlined in our previous notice remain in effect.

As previously stated, you may transfer any remaining domains from your account prior to 0500 PST on Monday, March 9, 2026 using the authorization code provided in the prior notice.

If you have procedural questions regarding domain transfers, please let us know.

Regards,=20

Hello,

We are writing to inform you of serious violations of Epik's Terms of Service and our core values regarding the hosting and moderation of content on domains registered with us.

We received a formal complaint regarding bbspink.com for hosting animal cruelty content. Upon investigation, we confirmed the presence of this illegal and deeply harmful material on your domain. Further review of your account revealed identical violations on a second domain, 5ch.net.

Please see the attached evidence, which includes screenshots of the video links and titles found on your domains. We will not be providing copies of the content itself, as it is deeply disturbing and illegal.

Effective immediately:

- * bbspink.com has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.

- * 5ch.net has been permanently suspended and is ineligible for transfer.

- * Your account has been banned from Epik.

Epik unequivocally condemns animal cruelty in any form and has zero tolerance for this content.

While we recognize that as a domain owner you may not directly author content posted on user-generated platforms, however, you bear full responsibility for content moderation. When notified of illegal content appearing on domains under your control, you have a legal obligation to disrupt, remove, and report it to appropriate authorities. This standard moderation responsibility appears to not have been met.

All remaining domains in your account may be transferred out by 0500 PST Monday, March 9, 2026 using the following auth code: 6nY~7cQ$2gN%4nT{. You must initiate transfers immediately, as your account access will be blocked.

Any domain remaining with us by that date will be suspended until such time as it is transferred or expires.

Epik reserves the right to report this matter to appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities as warranted by the severity and nature of the violations.

If you have questions regarding this action, you may contact abuse@epik.com.

Regards,

Abuse Team

Dear Andrew,

Abuse refuses to help. This is a no warning takedown of user generated co= ntent that I don=E2=80=99t have control of until it is reported through l= isted deletion system.

It is starting to look like theft.

Dear Support,

Would you tell me how to get my domain names back?

One poster posted the same thing on both of those sites.

5ch.net and bbspink.com

Neither of them have anything to do with animal cruelty. The person or persons that did this. Made a complete copy of my websites the day before they went live, 5ch.one is not me, it is a copy. Basically phishing.

I know what your CEO said. We have a deletion request system and paid human deleters that are Japanese.

Here is what the Japanese are telling me. Millions of people use this website.

Please do something about it quickly, Jim
