This world is controlled by Lucifer, who deceived the nations with his Freemasonic builders. One day the synagogue of Satan shall bow down before the overcomer, who is a Christian, from Revelation 3:7-13 (google it). This overcomer shall start the beginning of the time when the saints shall rule with rods of iron, while the manchild of Revelation 12 is raptured before Satan can assassinate him.

It's Jesus in the body of Christ us born again with the Holy Ghost VS the body of Satan who are the people of disobedience working in the angel of the air who is Lucifer.

Once the world acknowledges Satan's defeat, then let us elect a new president that shall reveal the truth, eventosay the shape of the earth, and the nature of space above with the reveal of high strangeness, and extraterrestrial life and UFO technology.

><https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=71SrHG-B-8o> [Open]

Just show us all the truth already?

Or are you Governments waiting for Jesus to return and do it instead?

Ancient Alien theorists would claim ARAVAT (not the elephant) and the knowledge of living inside his microcosm and knowledge about the infinite macrocosm of the container came from Alien sources alien knowledge and an Alien spiritual religion.

People wanted the disclosar of Aliens, I was trying to release the disclosour of God!

The feds refuse to do the right thing because they would have to admit to wrongdoing and everyone with 2 braincells to rub together understands why it is evil to stalk and gaslight people nonstop over extended periods of time while trying to take any amount of wealth or peace from them... but the feds are running cover. they are protecting these little gangstalk harassment campaigns because they use them to kill people who are inconvenient to them. actually just anyone, you don't even have to be "inconvenient" they are narcissists who take pleasure in abusing others... and if people knew their involvement it would be a huge fucking deal. but they never admit to it because if they did people would lose faith in the government, but what they don't understand is that people already have zero faith in the government, they just don't know that it's organized jewry pushing the buttons and pulling the levers. and pretty soon they will know. and every day that they postpone putting them in cages or graves it is just going to get worse for them on a massive scale and there is nothing they can do about it. they are just going to do the right thing or they are going to go kicking and screaming and crying to their own destruction.

I think a lot of the Nobody and frens like the mechboyz in Warhammer. Orc technology is basically RNG, nobody learned anything. nobody did anything. the boyz just hit a bunch of crap with a wrench until one of them got something to happen. this small victory excites the group, raises waaargh, etc, suddenly two boyz get something out of a hit. Now it's a work party, and everyone's moving, everyone's trying this or that. and in this case the nobody is basically the living spirit of their gods, or all of them or whatever, but the point is those idiots just shaking pipes like in the goonies to see what happen eventually end up with a fucking mech. How did they get it? Nobody knows. Nobody cares. The point is by the end there's a fuck load of them, and they all climb into their giant mech they made by accident and do all sorts of fun nonsense. but they didn't learn a thing. I think that's nice.

Either 3mg Vraylar for a week, or hit 400-600mg Seroquel

No im a fan of sending my countrymen die for an ally whose populace gets to dip off to another country after fucking the locals, oh and strong arming the UNIFIL forces with tanks.

UN aint gonna do shit and yall know it, racists wanna make it so this country built by immigrants is only "their" country so fine, im not american enough for you fucks? Kool with me let you kids die for fake godless heathen jew larpers me and the rest of the non american immigrants will just keep fucking your daughters while you watch your sons die for a supposed "ally".

Or we could play nice and agree race isnt a thing that decides pride in ones nation of residence, but values, actions, and character (all of which i lack, but if the example is good, im sure id would follow, and if the example is bad, i can choose to let it fester with my inactivity)

So um sorry guys my here tank just happened to misfire at them UN forces you got there

Totally a mistake i swear

Like wtf dudes you reading this shit?

How do you accidently fire a fucking tank? Isnt there some dude in that shit having to aim and press a button?

Tell me again how WW3 wont happened when you got isreal literally blasting unified forces comprised of 50+ countries?

If i wanted to accelerate the scenerio into WW3 you know what id be targeting?

A force compromised of 50 different countries LOL

And we send them more guns and troops

Its thats not being complicit then i dont know what is dudes

They are a consumerist cult hellbent on destroying communities where people just want to be left alone. They are the brown shirt militant arm of the capitalists, and all it took to recruit them was a few gays in tv and movies, and cheap chinese merchandise. I find them extremely weak minded and weak willed, and detest them for their aiding the capitalists oin eroding opportunities for self reliance because they hold a grudge against anyone that doesn't want to live in a city and praise them for where and who they put their genitals into.

Do not confuse this with my perspective of the gays in general, plenty of them are displeased with LGBT and their shenanigans as well, and I get on just fine with them

I need certain diet and activity regulation to keep all sorts of things working well, mood, energy, digestion, etc. I am very happy with the changes I've implemented in my 30s. I am fit and healthy and can cook most anything from scratch. I have seen a stark divide in those my age who implemented healthy practices, and those who did not yet, and it is drastic the differences. I think until 40s there is still time to shift, but 30s are definitely where you set your pathway for middle age

Its like spoiled kids breaking another kids toy so now the poor kid has no toy, meanwhile the rich spoiled kid can get daddy to buy him a new one just to make the poor one feel bad...like how is that not sociopathic? How is that a normal human thing?

Palestine is the toy, and the jew larpers get to dip off back to europe, like if thats not being spoiled idk what is, fucking palestinians dont have dual citizenship, How is that even okay?

Dude israel could exist peacefully and we all know it, but thats not their end goal and i fear they rather see that piece of land becprme a nuclear hell hole than literally learn to share

Like ffs some of these people are so fucking rich they dont need it, how is any of that okay?

Even with the wealth of the world and knowledge these people cannot find peace, if that is not a curse from God then i dont know what is. Its like some Cain b.s forced to wonder till the end of days never finding solace knowing the only thing to look forward too is Gods judgement, never once considering maybe God would forgive them, no pride,arrogance, and denial is so much easier for some than humility, love, and forgiveness.

I say sisterly because it's the most passive aggressive and cold hearted treatment I have ever recieved from anyone. Its soul crushing.

I want to scream and shout at this person, really show them what for but deep down i just want to cry and want this hatred to end. I just want to live in peace and harmony, I don't want this anger and maleovence anymore.

Dude it's not even that good. The fucking whole outside world intruded. You know what a mass act of disregard did to the world?

When you have a prison system to put bad people in it's supposed to separate them from the good people so that they are punished and the rest of productive society is protected and preserved.

But with this you have removed morality. There's no criminals or gang members anymore. It's just people, each as equally fucking horrible as the last. The world should be in a prison.

The Nobody would gladly out himself to life imprisonment, if those who followed had the guts to follow there. But they won't. The Nobody accepts guilt, so in his eyes there is still a distinction between the two sides of the world. The bivalence of behaviour. But it seems like no one else thinks like that. So nothing matters. There's no right or wrong or hope or despair no light no dark no good or evil it's just a bland grey expanse of eating shitting and sleeping and there's no beauty in that.

I'm sure there's a bunch of plastics out there so engrossed in self interest that they'll see this as a positive change. To them I say congratulations.

But for everyone else it's pretty clear that nobody can change anything. Disparity, contrast, balance, flow, unity - they have all been forsaken. We may as well not have colours. We may as well not have music. We may as well not have tastes. Or sensations. Because they mean nothing when no meaning is attributed to, or rather when no has the fucking stones to attribute meaning to anything other than self interest. When you see the grey you'll fucking know what I mean. And it's not natural it's us its people. We aren't just polluting the environment and wiping out animals like that's not bad enough you are forsaking your own fucking nature. You're own hearts and souls. I've watched it for long enough. Fail as a race on your own I'm not witness or party to this anymore.

Yeah but that's the goal the stupid fundamentalist crowd wants. The idea was to shape him into a heteronormative Stepford husband robot, that could be seen as acceptable in an archaic society for his comfort and everyone else's. But he decided that being himself mattered more. If the only bed or meal offered were from people intent on hatred and influence then he would starve and sleep on the ground. And as it got worse and th cyber habitats he frequented were invaded too, he just beared with it. Because he's the way that he is and no amount of pressure or coaxing or anything will change that.

As a matter of fact, the greatest crime the nobody ever committed was attempting to do the same thing to you all that you did to him. He didn't want you to stop hurting him: that came naturally to primates like you. But if you wanted to be left alone to be yourself, and knew what that felt like, there would be no fucking clearer way to send that message would there - because that's exactly how he feels.

You know, in the first Halo game, when they do the "calibration" thin in the first scene... They ask you to "look up". The direction you push the stick in that moment decides if you have inverted Y axis for the rest of the playthrough unless changed in menu. They could have made it solely something you change in a menu but they decided to build it into the opening scene instead to make it seamless.

Why does reality insist on being difficult? Can't we just reset everything and live in a better experience, one where we don't hate each other and are at peace with our differences?

Because there's a duality here. There's hate, and then there's love.

I think we both know what version we both want.

the abrahamics want hate that is the design of 'adam' = atom = atomization = division of people, then they replaced 'love' with fear and so promote xenophobia and racism as a result of the psychosis they create there can be no 'harmony' with abrahamics.

If I invaded someone's family home and put a fucking digital watch that beeped hourly in the ceiling and was like "look up" they'd probably tell me to go fuck myself and they'd be right. Creating problems for people to solve isn't cute. It isn't acceptable. Are you fucking kidding. Texas is the fucking coal mining ghetto of the world, her people simple and her goals short term. I would encourage the institution of capital punishment, because the worst thing you could do to the citizens of Texas is lengthen thier lifespan.

Just own it Texas. Where it on your sleeve. When you strap a human being to chains and use a pair of tractors to pull them apart own it. Don't hide it. When you attach em to a boat and drag em behind it until they lose the energy to swim and drown, show everyone. When you dispose of a body and say you've done the right thing, show everyone.

If there's so much evil in it, why can't everyone see it and be afraid? Do your evil in the open if it's so great you gutless conniving wastes.

the challenge of death is over, all of you failed but I hold another challenge, one that is possible.

this one is I will work for you for 5 years if you are able to successfully kidnap me. you must not harm me or kill anyone in the process, that nulls and voids everything, minor bruises and scrapes that are easily healable are acceptable tho.

for more details the rules are as thus :

challenge begins.

the challenge of death is over, all of you failed but I hold another challenge, one that is possible.

this one is I will work for you for 5 years if you are able to successfully kidnap me. you must not harm me or kill anyone in the process, that nulls and voids everything, minor bruises and scrapes that are easily healable are acceptable tho.

for more details the rules are as thus :

>>39033361 → #

there is one typo, no got ommitted from the challenge, it is meant to be read, do no harm.

challenge begins.

subsequent selection of Valentinian Gnosticism over that because Zionism, how globalism intersects with all that, and then evolving past the political duality and returning to my humanist roots once I made all the unconscious surrounding my childhood sexual assault conscious.

I get that the whole ethos of this place is to let it go, but idk, I impacted this space way more than I ever thought possible and I'm still in disbelief a bit lol. It's wild to have no proof of it really, but I did meet some intel connected peeps irl, worked in ai, it's been a wild ass ride.

All because I loved a chick and lost her pretty much. I get that lots of people contribute here, but when I look back at screen caps I have of the thread, it becomes obvious some voices are driving discussion (mine being one of them). Mostly because a lot of what I faced was universal, it resonated in people. Plus the whole Zionist family stuff kinda made me like Zuko from avatar to use a metaphor. I don't hate them for the record, I want world peace and I hope we can all heal somehow.

This world is controlled by Lucifer, who deceived the nations with his Freemasonic builders. One day the synagogue of Satan shall bow down before the overcomer, who is a Christian, from Revelation 3:7-13 (google it). This overcomer shall start the beginning of the time when the saints shall rule with rods of iron, while the manchild of Revelation 12 is raptured before Satan can assassinate him.

this is just a fact, also in the castle there's not unlimited cupcakes, but a reasonably large assortment of cupcakes. enough for like 3 servings. they wanted to call it unlimited cupcakes but then they got red lobstered and then they limited the cupcakes but didn't change the signage so they got hit up again for false advertising.

but my point is the pretty princess castle has a GOOD SELECTION of cupcakes if you're not going to be a dick about it and try to game the system.

see like, and i'll keep it short here, the first guy saw unlimited cupcakes as a challenge, so he ate like 5 servings of cupcakes. and the cook is at the pretty princess castle all the time but the PAISTRY CHEF, that guy is only there till six. so essentially they had to call him back and he's at his daughter's recital, he doesn't need this, she's not even a good dancer but she tries real hard. so he's gotta leave mid performance, which is embarrassing for him AND his daughter, then drive 25 minutes to make him 2 more red velvet cupcakes and one of the lava cake ones. essentially two additional servings of cupcakes but that costs the cia like 500 dollars when you do it and it was clear he was going to do it a lot. so yeah, they had to restrict it i really don't think you guys understand what it costs to make a pretty princess castle plus he was getting crumbs everywhere when he was getting teh blowjob from grimes

No you don't get it then lmao. I always knew I wasn't the nobody. I knew this was some sort of fed honeypot, or something like that. And I entered anyway to do discourse and it went HILARIOUSLY (but also deeply dopely).

I never thought I was secretly the nobody. I even met a former therapist chick who turned out to be a pedo who also introduced me to a CIA asset whitehat hacker lmao, that is not everyone here bud. Healed her while she was super sick, had some wild ass shit happen, saw an angel or something.

Never thought I was special, stop projecting your narcissism on me lmao. Quite the contrary, I hated myself for cheating on the love of my life and went on a quest to find out why. Eventually realized with therapist chicks help that I had been graped as a child, a realization that unfucked my entire psychology and recontextualized my entire life

The therapist chicks even asked me if I thought I was special, seems to be an undercurrent in these threads. No I never thought I was. Ever. Everyone is special I told her, so no one is, one of those paradoxes of life.

My life has been fucking crazy though and I am proud of overcoming everything I've been through. Simultaneously that doesn't make me a narcissist despite how much you seem to want that, whoever you are lmao Redhead boobah meme is all me baby. It ain't narcissistic to speak the truth.

Which is part of why all of this has been a shitstorm. Opinions are like assholes, unless your opinions are fundamentally metaphysically more sound than the opposition. And if someone consistently did that, and didn't think they were the nobody, others they broke the 4th wall to might ironically consider them the nobody, even though they're still just themselves.

It's p meta I'll admit, but all I've realized in the end is my perspective would have been more valuable elsewhere most likely. Onward to that,

If you pluck a string at one point and time it takes a certain amount of time and distance before it gets to the amplitude you needed. it's hard to get a large amplitude in a short time and space, but a little strum in the right place at the right time can get a big affect in the far future.

Duh, however we live in an era where organizational credibility is at an all time low, and individual credibility is at an all time high (especially for those with better than average memory and communication skills). Unless the plan is to go hyper authoritarian (in which case a place like this wouldn't even be needed), it would be in organizations best interest to induct individuals who they crossed swords with if some sort of mutual interest and goal could be identified.

I'm about to try to join bluefor, hopefully my compromises will be respected and not rejected. I guess we'll see.

no ya don't I might think you do but that "thing" in your head you can really think you love

that's not me
I'm different even if you can't imagine how

I still am not what you think I am

and there fore
on account of how reality works
can not love me

not for reals at least and instead you're like having a "crush" or whatever you want to call it as you just "imagine" I'm who you want me to be when I'm not but someone else is, or was or can be but the longer

you waste your time
on me

the longer
it will take you to find who you thought I was

and that could bend you to my will even if only on accident

so no anon
you don't love me

but whoever it is you do love
will be someone you get to know for reals

the way only you can and you won't have to share them with a thread full of internet trolls duh...

convert? Why bother. It's probably similar to the religion you have now. The Quran mentions peace. What else more is there to adhere to?

But people are different. How you study and view the Quran would be your own responsibility. It's your choice whether you want to be a terrorist or not.

correct me if I'm wrong

but another way to say what you just said is you're having an "emotional response" to what you perceive as a "experience" someone else shared that you can relate to I'm not asking what kind of emotional responses who what the experience you relate to is or which poster triggered you

but I am asking

on some level

is that how your own thoughts are formed based off of your personal opinions

of other's thoughts

or at least

what you think they are thinking

even if you're wrong

Jesus is part of the Trinity, as he is the Son of God. and for that reason alone i will never be a muslim, though i would like to be their ally. just not the terrorists.

narcissists aren't humans. maybe up to a certain point but seldomly do they decide to not cross the line clearly labeled "evil that can't be atoned for"

and the only way to live with it is to create an entirely different person as their false self. this analogous to being possessed. they destroy themselves. the little person in front of the screen who has mirror neurons and critical thinking processes. and they become the screen. Not humans.

for any of you who want to believe that Taylor Swift was born with a penis and only pretends to be a female that can speak to other females all over the world in some kind of "emotional code" that I'm guessing is PMS related

you go right ahead

I mean folks can also think anyone who calls themselves Lucifer on 4chan then swears that's not who they really are and just call themselves that to fuck with folks gullible enough to believe what they are told on the internet

could be a real life

both at the same time

kind of anon

On some level yes, but everyone thinks in that manner. I would describe that as half of my potential thought process. The other half being absolutely objective - ascribing mechanics to myself and my subjective experience, and the experience of others (via platonic forms and other narrative elements like themes and such, from what could be described as an objective, Jungian, archetypal characterization). Think the observer of a story, pure consciousness just witnessing myself and everything around me objectively. It's like self awareness maximalized.

Is that weird? Haha, I think all talented writers possess such consciousness.

yeah it happens. they don't really want any of the things they just like human suffering and turmoil. if it's any consolation, people who do shit like that don't ever repent. and they are actually going to hell. and they're gonna find out that they have made a mistake. They think themselves witty enough and smart enough to out think the reality that we live in, but what they do is destroy themselves. they look at the impossibility of this world that we live in and say in triumphant pride "we live on a wet rock and humans are apes, I want banana. My actions mean nothing" and then they find out in a sudden despair. "oh. this is eternity we exist forever and you actually can fuck it up"

You just have to collapse their ego and then rebuild them with proper metaphysical understanding. They're human, they are a human tragedy.

I used to be a bit of a narcissist but then I hurt the woman I loved more than myself, so I began to hate that narcissistic part of me so hard I reprogrammed my brain til I deleted it. Still remember what it was like, and can fake it to be 'undercover', but my core is truth now. Maybe it always was, but meh if I can do it, anyone can do it.

It's both, you can consult scripture, it's why God kills children and babies so often, it's because He knows the future, and also (Apocalypse of Peter IIRC), He'll sometimes just bring them to paradise, other times He'll let them learn every life lesson that they would've learned on earth in the presence of the angels until they are bing chillin.

TL:DR: God knows, God chooses.

Source: Literally just read the bible and other holy texts, I am so fucking unqualified (not really lmao) and uninformed compared to like 95% of you guys, but it's literally all right there.

I did multiple times in the astral plane, I've tortured Him, Murdered Him, ect, etc, etc, Him and His Father and His Spirit and His Holy Ones, and His angels, whether or not I was successful is up to interpretation. But regardless, I meant it at the time, and all I know is that I'm forgiven, and that God still loves me, even me.

Double-asafucked on the hood
(11 min) Porn quality: 100%

Kaleb definitely took it up the ass on at least one occasion.

No, but I let a guy top me for 2 seconds while very drunk
before I realize I wasn't gay KEK

>Still mostly a virgin, Syd

Not gay, just open to experimental experiences and extremely grief stricken at the hands of the WoS.

I wanted revenge.

Bi at most, not even that, I love and prefer women.

Especially her.

You know my search history, chud.
