Well, this is disturbing. Q linked Disney Cruise line to the underground entrances of Epstein Island, obviously implying child trafficking from the cruise line to the assumed dungeons within the island.

Let's chat about subterranean support systems...
Ventilation much? This is not for a "garage" partially cut in to a hill.

At this juncture I would like to know if any of the Trompe-l'oeil painting of these #Epstein buildings matches the paint chemistry of any paints specifically and exclusively created for buildings at Disney. Same goes for lines etc in that garbage pile.

That's it! The faux painting reminded me of something and you found it.... Disney trompe l'oeil painting. OMG.

Now it all makes sense. Disney - Epstein - a ready supply from the cruise line. Bldgs appear like Disneyland.

These people are sick.

So what is the theory? Disney was having kids go ashore to LSJ island in the middle of cruises? I know the Epstein scandal is enormous, but that scenario seems too brazen to be plausible...Or is there something else? Like cruises used to move kidnapped children?

More than likely the latter scenario. Cruise kids would provide cover.
