

THE RISE OF THE NEOCONS / WOHLSTETTER NETWORK

The Wohlstetter Network was born out of the 'Chicago School', the big foundations, the military industrial complex. RAND Corporation itself was a product of the Ford Foundation and M.I.C. The brainchild of this network is the man who links the Federal Reserve, Chicago School, Columbia University and Albert Wohlstetter himself, Arthur F. Burns. This network was the second generation of RAND Corporation, although Albert Wohlstetter had been a big part in RAND Corp. from the early days. He had survived in the corporation through the disastrous Viet Nam era, the Daniel Ellsberg whistleblowing, the Bay of Pigs and Contra Wars. All while keeping the Cold War arms race and Soviet 'threat' alive. This network would be a significant factor in the neoconservative era leading to 9/11 and the War on Terror.
